WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

1992 AHEAD
OF OUR TIME

We have made a difference . . .

GREEN YEARS

AHEAD OF OUR TIME

IF ONE LOOKS AT WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL ON THE SURFACE, IT LOOKS LIKE A TYPICAL SUBURBAN HIGH SCHOOL. HOWEVER, THERE ARE MANY ASPECTS THAT MAKE US "AHEAD OF OUR TIME." WHETHER IT IS THE EXCELLENT FACULTY, THE UNPRECEDENTED ACADEMIC REPUTATION, THE SENSE OF COMMUNITY, OR THE ABUNDANCE OF EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL SURPASSES ALL OTHER COMPETITION. EVEN THOUGH THE FACULTY MAKES OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SCHOOL, THE STUDENTS ARE THE ONES WHO MAKE THIS HIGH SCHOOL DIFFERENT FROM ALL OTHERS. WE ARE TRULY "AHEAD OF OUR TIME."

AHEAD OF OUR TIME

academics

"THAT'S WHAT EDUCATION MEANS— TO BE ABLE TO DO WHAT YOU'VE NEVER DONE BEFORE." IN RECENT YEARS, WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL HAS BECOME KNOWN FOR ITS EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMICS. THE CLASS OF 1992 WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED AS THE CLASS THAT ACHIEVED GREAT HEIGHTS IN ACADEMICS. THROUGH THE BROAD RANGE OF COURSES OFFERED IN EACH DEPARTMENT, EACH STUDENT CAN STRIVE FOR SUCCESS IN HIS OR HER AREA OF INTEREST. BECAUSE OF STUDYING, DEDICATION, AND HARD WORK, STUDENTS HAVE BECOME "AHEAD OF THEIR TIME."

faculty

"HE TEACHES WHO GIVES AND HE LEARNS WHO RECEIVES." AT WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL, THE TEACHERS UNDERSTAND THEIR RESPONSIBILITY NOT ONLY TO GIVE BUT ALSO TO RECEIVE KNOWLEDGE. IN CLASS, THE FACULTY MEMBERS ALLOW THE STUDENTS TO EXPRESS THEIR OPINIONS WITHOUT CRITICISM. BECAUSE OF THE OPPORTUNITIES PROVIDED, KNOWLEDGE IS SHARED BY ALL. HOWEVER, KNOWLEDGE IS NOT THE ONLY THING RECEIVED IN THE CLASSROOM. AT WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL, THE TEACHERS PLAY AN IMPORTANT AND DEDICATED ROLE IN EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. THROUGH THEIR INVOLVEMENT, THEY ARE ABLE TO COME IN CLOSER CONTACT WITH THE STUDENTS AND DEVELOP STRONG FRIENDSHIPS. THIS DEDICATION AND STRONG DESIRE TO LEARN AS WELL AS TO TEACH MAKE THE WESTWOOD HIGH FACULTY "AHEAD OF THEIR TIME."

How do you like our looks?

activities

"THE WORLD IS TOO MUCH WITH US; LATE AND SOON, GETTING AND SPENDING, WE LAY WASTE OUR POWERS." IN RECENT YEARS, WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL HAS CREATED NUMEROUS EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES TO HELP IMPROVE SOCIETY. THROUGH ACTIVITIES SUCH AS UNICEF, GOVERNANCE, ECOLIBRIUM, AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS CLUB, THE STUDENTS HAVE FACED AND DEALT WITH PROBLEMS RANGING FROM THE ENVIRONMENT TO RACISM. DUE TO THESE ACTIVITIES, THE STUDENTS OF WESTWOOD HIGH HAVE BECOME MORE AWARE OF LOCAL AS WELL AS WORLD PROBLEMS. THESE EXPERIENCES HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THEIR STRONG DEDICATION AND MATURITY, THUS MAKING THEM "AHEAD OF THEIR TIME."

Westwood High students can have fun in the cafeteria even after the school day is over.

community

"A TRUE FRIEND IS FOREVER A FRIEND." WALKING DOWN THE HALLS OF WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL, EVERYONE NOTICES THE TREMENDOUS FEELINGS OF FRIENDSHIP AND PRIDE IN THE AIR. IN RECENT YEARS, ALONG WITH MANY TRIUMPHS, THE SCHOOL HAS FACED MANY HARDSHIPS. THROUGHOUT IT ALL, WE STAYED TOGETHER. FRIENDSHIP AND PRIDE MADE THE DIFFERENCE.

THE QUALITIES EXPERIENCED HERE GO BEYOND THE ACADEMIC SETTING. AT SPORTING EVENTS AND VARIOUS OTHER ACTIVITIES, THIS FRIENDSHIP AND PRIDE ARE FELT BY ALL. BECAUSE OF OUR ACHIEVEMENTS IN MANY FIELDS, WE CAN NOT HELP BUT FEEL PROUD TO BE STUDENTS AT WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL.

GREEN YEARS DEDICATION

Mr. James Pender honored by Class of 1992

As students of Westwood High School, we have received a top-notch education thanks to an outstanding faculty, a caring administration, and a diverse curriculum. Each year, the senior class dedicates Green Years to a member of the faculty who has contributed much time and energy to the success of the students.

To our recipient: Your boundless energy serves as a motivation to all who know you. Each day as we venture into your class, we explore new areas of math from Pythagorean Theorem to Permutations and Combinations. Through your love for math, we are able not only to understand the concepts mathematically but also to comprehend the purpose and relevance of the concepts to our daily lives. You are not content just lecturing the ideas to us. You insist upon personalizing the class, reaching out to individual students on all levels who need help.

The degree of involvement which you take in your students' lives and in the high school is admirable. For example, you have devoted many hours, risking your life to teach new drivers the rules of the road. Even when we bump an occasional telephone pole, you always smile and offer words of encouragement. You spend many evenings here at the school, helping out juniors with SAT review or assisting with Northeastern's night school. Even with all these responsibilities, you find time to serve as faculty advisor to the math team. We could not ask for more commitment or dedication from any one person.

Furthermore, the intense interest you take in our lives outside of school is quite remarkable. You question us about our weekend activities and always listen with a sympathetic ear to our troubles. We will never forget your enthusiasm and support as you attended virtually all sporting events, cheering on Westwood athletes to many victories.

Your genuine care and concern for our well being has indeed touched us all deeply. At any time of the day, you are there to help your students. However, you not only serve as a great teacher and role model but also are a great friend. You go far beyond the call of duty to make certain that your students succeed inside and outside the classroom. Your dedication and love has earned for you the respect of the faculty and all the students. For your love for learning, your friendship, and many other reasons, the Class of 1992 would like to offer its thanks by dedicating this year's yearbook to you, Mr. James Pender.

CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION

AHEAD OF OUR TIME

The superintendents and School Committee direct the school system throughout the year with dedication and strong commitment. This year an open meeting was held in the gymnasium at WHS, at which time high school students and students from all over the system attended, where they had the opportunity to watch the School Committee in action. At this meeting, teachers with 25 years service in Westwood were recognized; high school student achievements were also recognized.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Phillip Flaherty
Principal

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1992

Each year when I write a brief message to the graduating class, one characteristic of that class seems to come to my mind. I will always remember this class for the amount of "togetherness" it has shown during its time here in the High School.

You have accomplished much academically and athletically, and you have made yourselves respected and admired by staff members for the degree of self-sufficiency and mutual support which has characterized all your efforts.

I am sure that as you go off to college, technical school and employment, you will continue to meet with success in all of your endeavors. Speaking for myself, Mr. Flahive and all the staff members, I wish you the very best of good fortune and express my thanks for what you have brought to the school during your four years of attendance.

Phillip F. Flaherty
Principal

From your anxious arrival as Freshmen, "way back" in 1988, we observed the development of a great class. It was exciting to see how quickly you came together, set your goals, and pursued a course of splendid achievement over the next four years. You all had a strong sense of direction. You realized the value of set priorities and taking time to think and learn. Most importantly, you took the time to care about others - both within our educational setting and communities outside of Westwood. You shared your talents and successes through such activities as parties for the homeless and others in need, and working with students in the lower grades.

I thank you for allowing me to share in these activities - the classroom, theater, music and athletics - and to witness your growth these past four years.

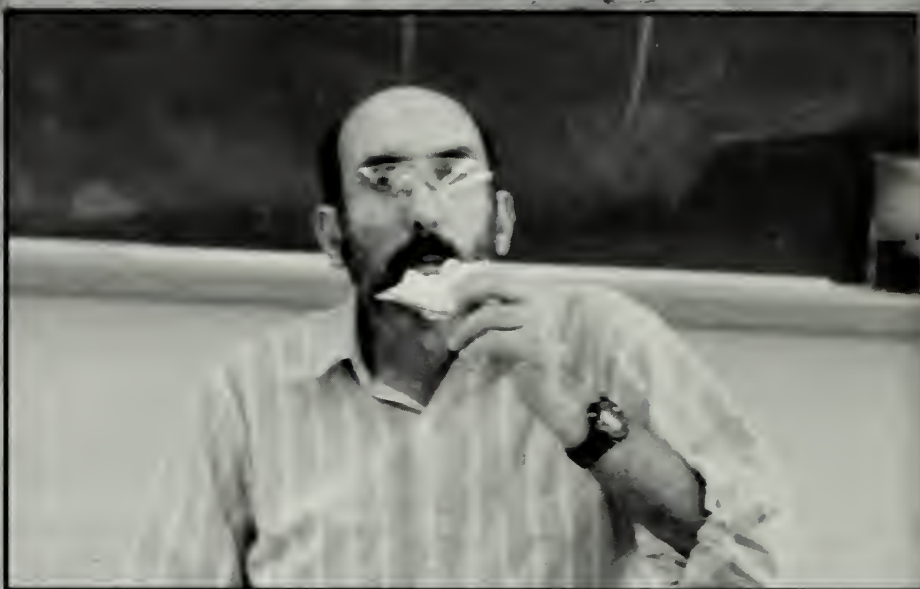

I urge you to keep in touch with your school and to become active in alumni affairs.

FRONT OFFICE

Everyday we took for granted everything the secretaries did for us whether it was checking in late with Mrs. Stirling, picking up that important message with Mrs. Macdonald, or going through referral slips with Mrs. Kallenberg. No matter what, they were always there, eagerly waiting for us with lots of enthusiasm and always with a smile. It is now, looking back, that we realize what the secretaries in the front office have done for us through the years. Furthermore, Mrs. Clement was always there making us "feel better." The Class of 1992 thanks you for all of your cooperation and understanding.

GUIDANCE

AHEAD OF OUR TIME

Westwood High School's Guidance Department is certainly one of the most important groups of people in the school. It seems as if the counselors are capable of handling anything. They adjust schedules, help seniors with college paperwork, and provide endless support and assistance for all students. Mr. Hughes, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. LeVangie, Dr. Kerrissey, our new guidance director, and Mr. Goldman focus all of their energy and attention towards the students and their needs. As we look back at our high school endeavors, we will always remember the friendships and guidance of these extraordinary people. We could not have succeeded without them.

Mark Haverty: "They do lots of college things."

Debbie Ringel: "The Guidance Department is great. They always listened to me complain about college."

Diane Murphy: "Mrs. Armstrong is the greatest. She always got me all of the information I needed."

ENGLISH

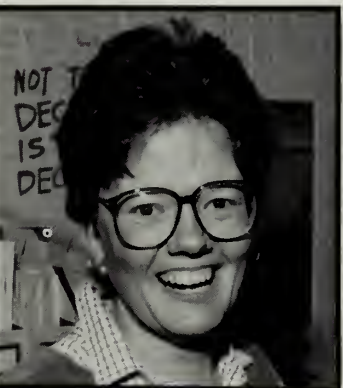

For all four years, every student becomes part of the English Department, headed by Dr. Terrence Earls. Whether it's reading, humanities, Youth and 20th Century, A.P. English or oral English, students study a broad range of topics. Above all, through the study of literature, students learn about their world, about themselves and, most importantly, about each other.

Furthermore, because teachers go beyond "memorization" and "five-paragraph essays," students are inspired through the discussion of literature, through the "give and take" in the classroom and through creative writing. Thanks to the dedication of the members of this department, English is more than vocabulary tests and grammar lessons. It is a way of life.

The involvement of English teachers also goes way beyond the classroom. This year, members of this department were advisors to key organizations and groups in school, such as the Student Advisory Board, Student Council, Green Years, "No Parentheses," Governance, Grade 9 Team Leader, and National Honor Society. In addition, they were always willing to chaperone activities and simply "be there" whenever needed. The Class of 1992 thanks all the members of this department. Because of them, we are much better prepared for the higher challenges of higher education and life.

AHEAD OF OUR TIME

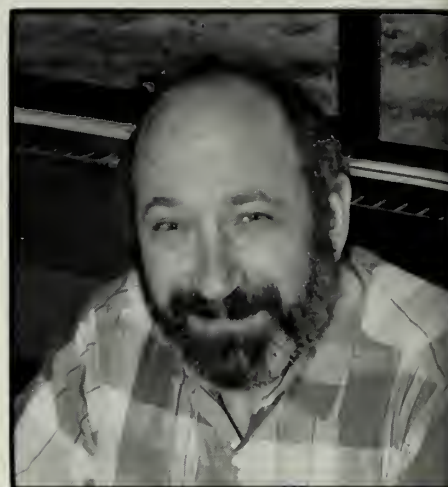

"Take a derivative", "Plug and Chug", and "call up Pythagorus" are all notorious maxims spoken by the math teachers of Westwood High School. The Math Department, headed by Mr. James Pender, has introduced the mathematics STANDARDS. This new program utilizes mathematics as a method of problem solving, communication, and reasoning. These new initiatives will foster a community within the classroom where teachers are not authorities with all the answers. Instead, teachers and students learn to discover math together. Through cooperative learning, students learn to share and respect each other's opinions and to justify their arguments by using math language skills.

The math teachers are also always readily available whether it is to help students with math, to chat with them about subjects not relating to school, or even to chaperone school activities. Whenever they are needed, the math teachers are always eager to drop what they are doing and help us, especially in the illustrious Math Seminar Room. Whatever they may be doing, the math teachers at Westwood High are never doing less than their best to help students. On behalf of the Class of 1992, we would like to extend our thanks and gratitude to everyone in the Math Department.

SCIENCE

Dr. John Griffin
Chairperson

Mr. Raymond Keegan

The Westwood High Science Department had another successful year. Under the direction of Dr. John Griffin, the department offered students opportunities to gain scientific knowledge in the classroom and to discover scientific techniques through lab experiments. The labs especially were tremendous. As one example, Dr. Griffin led the way by teaching his students how to make "fool's gold"; Mr. Topalian, the concept of angular motion by way of air hockey. For all the learning - and fun while learning - the Class of 1992 would like to thank the Science Department.

Mr. Wayne Relleva

"The Science Department is indeed unique. For example, Mrs. Staiti's room is the only classroom completely lacking sunlight."

HISTORY

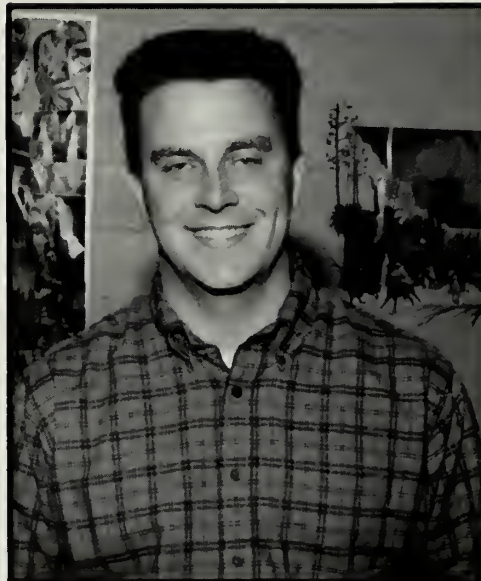

If you want to be anything from an archeologist to the dictator of a small Central American nation, then the History Department is the department for you. Here, one can learn U.S. history from Mr. Jackson, European history from Mr. Delaney and Mr. Dore, Global Issues from Mr. Beurman, how to "focus" on Government from Mrs Walsh-Saumsiegle, and that there is no such thing as vacation from Mr. Brown. The History Department continued to offer many other exciting and demanding courses. As our door to the world, the History Department fulfilled its role well.

Once again, under the leadership of acting department chairperson, Senora Hollis Perry, the Foreign Language Department completed another year of academic study in the areas of French, Spanish, and Latin. This year has been more successful than ever with the opening of the Language Seminar and the addition of Señora Linda Lannon and Señor James Nocito to the department. Through the Homestay programs, ambitious students were able to take everything they learned in the classroom and apply it to real life situations in France or Spain. The Class of 1992 would like to thank all the teachers in this department for everything they've done for us. We will never forget Madame Rice's "oh la la's", Senora Perry's oral drills, Señora Lannon's restaurant stories and Senor Ducheneau's "hola's" in the hall.

SPECIAL SERVICES

There are just not enough ways in which to thank the teachers in the Special Services Department. For without their keen insight, compassion, and sensitivity where would Westwood High School be? Whether it be with Mrs. Rosengarten and Mrs. Runci in the Learning Center, Mrs. Matteson in the Alternative Program, Mrs. Connolly in the Resource Room, or any one of the other many gifted teachers in this department, a student can feel comfortable and cared for.

The number of colleges now fitting special programs into their curriculum, coupled with the guidance and assistance of these teachers, gives students in these programs the ability to enjoy and experience the many benefits of higher education. And so with a special place in the core of the school, the Class of 1992 gives thanks to those involved with special services.

ART AND MUSIC

OF OUR TIME

Mr. Thomas DelSignore
Director of Art

The Westwood High School Art and Music Departments work together to encourage student creativity. This year, guided by Mr. DelSignore, Mrs. DesPres, and Mr. Milan, students used diverse mediums to create the artwork that decorated our hallways and library. Under the direction of Mr. Giurleo and Miss Trisorio, students were exposed to various styles of music, whether it involved listening to an opera, playing an instrument, or programming a keyboard. These two departments allowed the students to involve themselves in and to explore the creative arts.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

In the Physical Education program, students have the opportunity to participate in a variety of activities. The department works hard in being able to offer choices. For example, this year an assesement program in which students worked on fitness activities was offered at the beginning of each class. Whether it's a run, weight lifting or volleyball, all students have a chance to participate. The Class of 1992 would like to thank Dr. Gearon, Mr. Niles, Ms. Peters, Mr. Tucelli, and Ms. Bannon for their dedication and enthusiasm.

The Westwood High School Business Department has become one of the most important departments in this school for preparing students for the outside world. The Business Department teaches students many different courses, ranging from keyboarding to computerized accounting. These courses have proved to be extremely valuable, not only to people who try to get jobs after high school, but also to the entire school body. The Business Department has become a necessity in today's computerized society. The Industrial Arts Department also has classes such as mechanical drawing and graphic arts. These courses have proven to be not only important for many people's career goals, but have also been fun and enjoyed by many of the students.

MEDIA CENTER

If a student were looking for a good book or for a place to study, he would have found it in the library or media center. This popular spot also served as a haven for many before school getting last minute homework done. Most important of all, however, it was the resource spot for term papers and projects. Without the never-ending help of Mrs. McCoubrey and Mr. Swezey, some of us would have never finished those assignments. We, the Class of 1992, thank them for making our times in the Media Center more profitable, more rewarding and more enjoyable and relaxing.

"Not only is there an art in knowing a thing, but also a certain art in teaching it." - Cicero

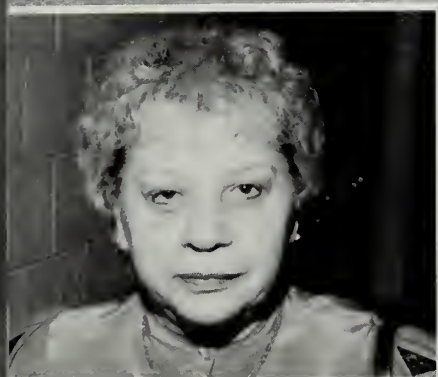

Four very special teachers retired at the end of this year: Mrs. Evelyn Malm, Miss Francesca Trisorio, Mr. Russell Downes and Mr. David Walsh. WHS was very fortunate to have had such dedicated and caring teachers. We wish them good luck, good health and happiness ahead.

Mrs. Evelyn Malm's teaching career spanned thirty-two years, thirty-one of which were at Westwood High. As a member of the English Department, Mrs. Malm's enthusiasm and interest were contagious to her students. Many times her journalism class could be seen "on the prowl" seeking out a story, taking pictures or interviewing students or staff. During her tenure at Westwood High, Mrs. Malm acted as advisor to the student newspaper (when it existed) and to the Student Advisory Board; she also served on many professional committees. In 1990 she was selected as Ninth Grade Team Leader, a position in which she served until her retirement. Her boundless energy and involvement with ninth grade students, parents, and teachers made a tremendous difference in the adjustment and success to incoming freshmen. Furthermore, Mrs. Malm is a writer for the newspaper in Foxboro, where she is featured as a weekly columnist, discussing a variety of issues. Good luck, Mrs. Malm, in whatever you do. We are going to miss you.

Mrs. Evelyn Malm

Miss Francesca Trisorio's teaching career spanned thirty-seven years, twenty-four of which were in Westwood. Her first Westwood experiences were at the junior high school where she taught music and where she was instrumental in the production of student musicals, the most "famous" of which was "The Boyfriend." In 1988 she joined the Music Department at the high school and soon her contributions to students were very evident. In addition to teaching music appreciation classes and being responsible for all vocal groups, Miss Trisorio was very instrumental in the organization and presentation of the Fine Arts Festivals. Furthermore, we will always remember all the musical presentations which have taken place at WHS. Miss Trisorio is currently working on a music-listening book to be used in schools. We wish her much success in this endeavor and a very happy retirement. We will miss her.

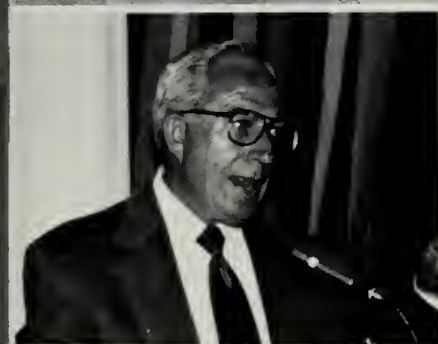

Miss Francesca Trisorio

Mr. David Walsh's teaching career of thirty-two years was spent in Westwood, six years at the junior high, the remaining at Westwood High. A member of the Math Department, Mr. Walsh always made certain his students understood their math and his patience and willingness to help made a difference - he really cared about us. We mustn't forget his sense of humor - that, too, made a difference in our approach to math itself or to any difficulties we may have been having. Mr. Walsh's contributions as a teacher also went beyond the classroom. For many years he served as coach for the junior varsity baseball team, the girls' softball team and for the high school intramural sports program. For the past several years, Mr. Walsh's contributions as a teacher have been in the Special Education Department, where again he assisted many students with their math skills. Good luck, Mr. Walsh. Take care. We're going to miss you.

Mr. David Walsh

Mr. Russell Downes' entire teaching career of thirty-four years was spent in Westwood at the junior high and at the high school. As a member of the Physical Education Department, of which he served as department chairman for three years, his contributions and influence are deeply imprinted on Westwood students. Mr. Downes' influence went beyond the boundaries of the physical education programs because of his active role as a coach. He served at the junior high as boys' soccer coach and boys' basketball coach, and at the high school as junior varsity football coach and head baseball coach. He always emphasized the ethic of fair play, one's striving for his best, and team play and cooperation. Good luck, Coach Downes. We're going to miss you.

PRESIDENT'S and VALEDICTORIAN'S MESSAGES

Christian L. Blomquist
President

Four years ago, the Class of 1992 entered Westwood High School a bit apprehensive, frightened, and looking forward to finally reaching this day; well, here we are. It was a long but wonderful four years, during which our initial fears subsided and feelings changed. . . . Looking at the class, I see those faces which will be forever present in many fond memories of Westwood High School. Each memory is the product of four exciting fun-filled years during which the class accomplished a great deal. Through the encouragement of friends, teachers, and most of all the tireless help of our parents, the Class of '92 has left a track record at Westwood High School which will be difficult to surpass. . . . In leaving Westwood High School, we will enter an entirely new world, full of new challenges, exciting experiences, and special people. If high school is any indication of what the future holds in store for the class, success awaits all of you. I anticipate that each of you will face the challenges which stand before you with the same enthusiasm and fervor you put into even the most mundane of the high school's tasks. I expect that you will never settle for second best, nor will you ever have to. . . . I urge you, my classmates, to strive for the best; you deserve nothing less. . . . I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the class for the friendships and opportunities presented to me during my four years at Westwood High School. I would also like to thank the faculty for all that it has done for my classmates and me. Aside from their roles as leaders, educators, and coaches, the faculty has also managed to become our close friends and mentors. I especially appreciate the leadership of the high school administration. Perhaps the people who deserve the greatest thanks today are our families. Without your help, support, and love, this day would not be possible.

Norman N. Liljestrand
Valedictorian

In an uncontrollable surge the people ran toward the pot of freshly cooked rice. The pot was almost swept away by the onslaught of starving people, and to save the rice the relief workers ran with it back to the safety of the helicopter. Meanwhile, one mother, a dry, withered skeleton, bent down thoughtfully, but in earnest, and began scooping up dirt which contained a few pieces of the spilled rice and put it in a small pot. . . . Men and women, starving to death, caught in a trap with no way out and nothing to do but wait, wait forever, and drag their bodies through life without direction, without anything at all to bring joy to their hearts or peace to their minds. It's cruel beyond my understanding of the word to think of the waste and extravagant consumption in our own country compared to the utter lack of food, and especially the lack of the ability to produce it, in the so-called underdeveloped countries of South America, Africa, and Asia. . . . What can we do, and what are we going to do? Why, look all around you; this is what we can do. We can't send aid forever, making only more dependence and instability, but we can teach, teach them to understand their problems and begin to solve them themselves. . . . We cannot ignore their problems and it is so easy to help. There are thousands of private organizations and corporations, and government organizations like USAID, and church or philanthropic organizations. Who will go? You could do anything at all, part time or full time. Who will spend their lives, as our own teachers have done so with us, teaching the world what it does not know. . . . Who will be a doctor, a nutritionist, an agricultural specialist, a well-digger, or engineer, working and teaching, saving lives dedicating themselves to the work of the needy. . . . Come to think of it, though, why would anyone go? It's so nice at home, and just think how rich we could get by catering to the needs of a rich society. . . . Who will go? I will go. I have been made strong by my family, teachers, friends and my church, and people are in such dire need of help. There is no reason for me not to go. . . . By helping, you will come face to face with reality. Abraham Lincoln once said, "Let me prepare myself because my time will come." I beseech you to prepare yourself to help the underserved populations of the world in any way you can. Will you go? Please, will you join me and go?

UNTITLED

I am the Healer who laughs at the night . . .
See me glowing deep within a child's eyes—
The spark of courage and hope that defies
All of the fears that can dim the Heart's light.
In adolescence, I'm the second sight
When the soul into troubled water glides—
Manning the helm through dark and teeming tides,
I steer the ship straight and set its course right.
Through life, I'm the knowledge that lies within:
The faith in the future and what will be.
For love, it can conquer most anything,
And any obstacles we cannot foresee.
Whatever the future may see fit to bring,
Remember the Healer that dwells within.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The Junior Class had a very successful year in 1991-92. In the fall we planted the Christina Grueter Memorial Tree. Members of the class and Christina's family gathered in the courtyard where we planted the tree and where we prayed for our lost friend. In the spring the tree bloomed with beautiful pink flowers and added a beautiful yet poignant touch to the courtyard.

During the year the class contributed greatly to athletics. In the winter the hockey team had a winning season, making it all the way to the championship. Star juniors on the team were Russell Flynn, Mark Paster, Ed Galvin, Jim Marsh and Craig Sinclair. Furthermore, the girls' basketball team was well represented by a group of junior girls, namely Kristy Kiriakopoulos, Wendy Rowe, Tricia Higgins, Whitney Ilg, and Nancy Radden. Juniors on the baseball team and girls' team also performed well.

Spring time was a very busy time. We put on a fashion show, which, we hope, will develop into an even better event next year. We gave the $125.00 proceeds to the senior all-night graduation party. Also through April and May, junior committees met weekly to plan for the prom, which turned out to be a good time for all.

Recently, the class officers have been working with Dr. Carol Kerrissey, who has proposed a "Buddy" program to assist the incoming freshmen with their high school adjustment. Many juniors will be participating in the program. The class would like to thank Mr. Edward Baker, our advisor, for all the work he put into making this year such a success for us. On to being seniors!

SOPHOMORES

Jill Santopietro, President;
Denise Cullinane, Treasurer;
Meg Earls, Secretary;
Joyce Wagner, Vice-President.

In reviewing this past year, the Class of 1994 accomplished a great deal. We began our year with a successful bake sale at the PTO Open House. Our greatest involvement in the community was the Kevin McNulty Fundraiser, initiated by our class this past December. Cans distributed throughout the school and town raised $600.00 for this leukemia stricken child. The "Quarter For Kevin" Fundraiser was such a success because many sophomores became involved in collecting contributions, making posters, and encouraging school-wide involvement. On a hot and sunny day in May, our class held a car wash which was enjoyable for those who attended. Our multi-colored semi formal, also in May, was quite successful socially. Many sophomores and freshmen dressed up in their finest evening wear and came to dance, socialize, and eat until the danced ended at 11:00. Our class beach trip on June 22nd ended our class activities and closed the year.

The Class of 1994 not only sponsored many activities this past year but also continued to excel in leadership, academics, and athletics. Many sophomores played important roles in various school-wide activities this past year, but also continued to excel in leadership, academics, and athletics. Many sophomores played important roles in various school-wide activities which have helped make our school a more enjoyable place to spend four memorable years of our lives. Now that the year has ended, we look towards our junior year, anxious to complete high school. However, we move on slowly with apprehension, knowing that the friendships we have made with both our peers and teachers will soon come to a close. On behalf of the Class of 1994, we would like to thank the Senior Class of 1992 for their guidance and help in making our sophomore year most enjoyable. We'd also like to wish them the best of luck in years to come.

Thank you,

Why so happy, Sushma?

Heeere's Joey!!

Like, hi!

No more, thanks, we're stuffed.

Flash them pearly whites, girls!

No scalping in the courtyard!

Wait! What's that on your nose?

What the- oh, just sophomores up to their usual antics.

Pete, your tonsils are fine.

Sit back, relax.

FRESHMEN

1992 Freshman Class Officers (L-R):
Victor Servello, Treasurer;
Latifa Gordon, Secretary;
Reed McLaughlin, President;
John Guindon, Vice-President.

When reflecting on freshman year, I can think of the many things that we as a class accomplished. For starters, the barbecue at the opening of school was a successful coming together of students, teachers and parents As the year progressed, the election of class officers came about The final outcome was Vic Servello as treasurer, Latifa Gordon as secretary, John Guindon as vice-president and Reed McLaughlin as president. All officers contributed greatly to ensure a successful year

The freshman class read the book Night, a novel about life in a Nazi camp. We were fortunate enough to have Mrs. Rita Kesselman come to share her experiences relating to her struggle and escape from a Nazi camp

The foreign language and English departments joined forces to do a cooperative project called Rafa Rafa, designed to help students understand other cultures

In the middle of the year we had recovering drug addicts come into our English classes and tell us about their struggles with drugs and alcohol. The message they put across to us was to "Say No to Drugs."

Probably the greatest event of our freshman year was Greek Week, topped off with a delicious Greek dinner catered in the school cafeteria.

In May many freshmen took part in the freshman/sophomore semi-formal In June, the class held a barbecue as well as a beach trip . . . All in all it was a great year . . .

WHAT WOULD YOU BEQUEATH TO NEXT YEAR'S TEAM? Another Metco miracle, steroids for Captain Fink's regiment, Dry playing surfaces, #7 ranking, better haircuts.

HONORS OR INDIVIDUAL RECOGNITION: Thanks to Ques and Q (you know who you are) for giving us a try this year, good luck to next year's team, listen to the captains, and see ya at the Howaya Bowl!

FOOTBALL

Once again, the football team dominated the gridiron this year, posting a 9-1 record and a #19 ranking in Eastern Mass.

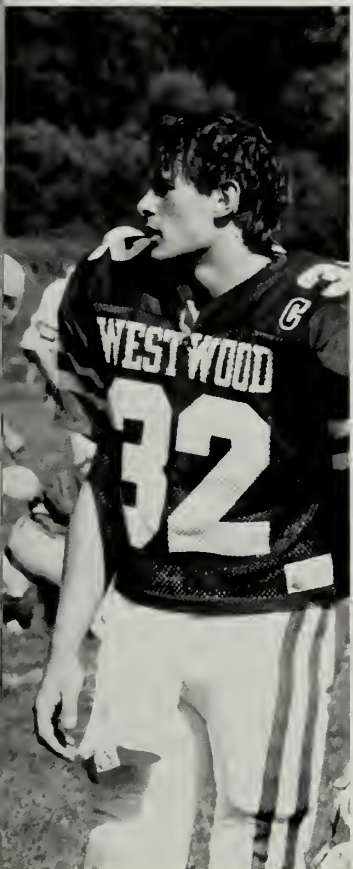

By rolling over the rest of the Tri-Valley League, the guys put themselves in a position to clinch at least a part of the league championship in their 8th game against rival Bellingham. In truly clutch fashion, the Wolverines withstood a final-minute Bellingham surge, and forced a fumble on their own 3-yard line. These last-second heroics demonstrated the determination which drove the team all season. The team would like to thank all the coaches and fans for being there when it counted.

MEMORIES: "ONE?!! ONE?!!", Vegas nights, Mike's cocoon, Defensive huddles, feels, Bellingham at goal-line, Smitty's run-back, fetus + seeka, Ben-Dover-D, "Shivah", "One good one!", "Payback Time", Schlee's locker, The Speeches.

CREATIVE AWARDS: Most likely to bet on a game: Steve Mason. Most likely to be told to "Think!": Everyone. Most likely not to know the count: Rob Duffy. Most likely to go off-sides: Jim Caruso.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Field Hockey Team consisted of talented, hardworking, enthusiastic players. Their record of 0-9-5 reflects the team's progress over the last year. With Co-captains Moira Brett and Lisa Troiano leading the way, the field hockey team grew stronger in skill and stamina with each game. Varsity coach Michelle Cuff enabled the team to develop new strategies to tie Bellingham, Medfield, Dover-Sherborn, Hopkinton and Ashland.

Good luck to next year's team!

MEMORIES: Singing "Hey La-dies" on bus rides, playing field hockey against the boys' ice hockey team, cheers created by the boys' hockey team, cheers . . . BOYS' SOCCER

Although the record may not show it, we did have a reasonably solid season. From game one, we kept on improving. With such a young team (almost half were sophomores), the next few seasons should be a turnaround. Good luck next year. Make the tournament.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Girls' Soccer Team was captained by Liz Brady, Meri Liddell, and Erin O'Brien this year. Even though the girls didn't do too well this year, most of the team was composed of sophomores so things should be looking up in years to come. The season may not have been filled with many wins, but it was filled with much hard work and team spirit. The last game against Weymouth proved this. The girls pulled together to tie this Division I team which showed their strengths. Even though this wasn't the girls' best year, it was memorable because of the fun and the many laughs that were shared. The seniors will never forget the traditional "Oh What A Night" dance before, during, and after the game, and hopes next year's team has just as much fun.

MEMORIES: OH WHAT A NIGHT, Fuffa falling down, Fuffa's fence flip at the DS game, Doctor No, and double sessions!

CROSS COUNTRY

Overall, it was not our best year, but it was one of the most fun. We lost every 3rd meet, but, hey, nobody's perfect, except maybe Holliston! We had many more "pasta fests" than usual, and more than 50% of the time, we weren't the only Westwood sport there! This made them even more of a blast! To sum it up, we went out, had a great time, whipped around a few times, but basically had an average season! Memories: Pasta Fests. "Hey, Barucci, how you getting home?" Evil course at Whitinsville-Christian. Construction obstacles at Middle School. Five of seven meets being rainy. Sour-Patch kids. Lack of team stretch. The Place. What would you bequeath to next year's team? Low athletic fees Cross-country support squad, co-ed team. Most memorable meet? Bellingham meet. Running in a hurricane, we won our most important meet to clinch an over .500 season. Honors: Sue Hart-League All-Star. Dan Dobra-Course Record and League All-Star.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

We ended the season with a 7-7 record. We feel that we could have been much stronger but we got off to a shaky start and at first we really didn't work together as a team. Nevertheless, near the end of the season, we improved dramatically and played well with each other. Memories: D.L.'s perspiration problem. Cheeky cheeky! I have a feeling some of you have been a little "HIGH" lately. You're up, You're up, YOU'RE UP!! Lisa's flaring nostrils.

Creative Awards - Most likely to sleep through a game: Gwen. Most likely to commit suicide after losing a game: Lisa. Most likely to punch the coach: Kim. Most likely to forget her socks: Jen. Bequest to next year's team: Even though you guys won't have us incredible seniors to guide you any more, we wish you luck! Try hard as always and do it TOGETHER!! Have a blast!

Most memorable meet: Holliston was definitely the most memorable game. First, Whitney sprained her ankle during warm-ups which upset the team. Nevertheless, we all pulled together and played harder than ever. Lisa and Veronica led the group with aces while Amy and Jen created some unbreakable blocks and unstoppable kills. We ended up killing Holliston, knocking them from their second place position.

Honors - TVL All-Star: Jen Crouse. Honorable Mention: Gwen Dreyer and Lisa Nicholas.

POOL PERFECT

GIRLS' SWIMMING

The Girls' Swim Team had their best season in their history as they captured the Southern Conference League title for the first time. Under captains Jen Barsamian, Jen Connors, and Lynn Santopietro, the girls finished their season at 10-0, undefeated. Our team was unstoppable because of the unbelievable swimming of Wendy Rowe and Donna Guglielmi who hardly ever lost a race for us. Chrissy Riley was also a major factor as a freshman and was involved in the record breaking relay team and the All-Star Team. The improvement of this year's team was apparent from the number of people who made Sectional cuts this year. There were only four people who attended Sectionals last year, but this year 10 people made the cuts to go to Sectionals. Only 2 people attended States last year, but this year Wendy, Donna, Jen C., Eileen, Chrissy, Sara, and Courtney made it to States. Even though there were many star swimmers on the team, they knew it was their depth with the third and fourth place finishes that won a lot of their meets. This year's swim team was not only very good but very special because of the friendships made on the team.

MEMORIES: Jen's sleep-over, "Summer Lovin'", fashion show, Ursuline meet, Wednesday night "All you can eat", beastie, Jess + Nicole's song, Diane's fluorescent earplugs, the SLOW LANE!! Wendy's incredible dives, middle lane mottos, KILL CHARLIE, banquet-the tape, black line disease, Jen + Jen hiding from Mr. Riley before practice, Sara's admirer, beating on Mr. Riley, and judges at Conferences.

HONORS: CO-MVP's- Wendy Rowe and Donna Guglielmi. Sportsmanship award- Laurie Schreiber. League All-Stars- Wendy Rowe, Donna Guglielmi, Jen Connors, Chrissy Riley, Eileen O'Dea, Sara Lanning, Courtney Patterson. Wendy Rowe- State Champion in 50 free and 100 free.

"Sandra was very universal and got along with everyone on the team."

"Kristine always kept our team well-fed."

"Betty and her elephant-skin always knocked down her pyramids, but she always kept us laughing."

CHEERLEADING

We had a good season with a lot of improvement by the end of the year. Our new cheers and dances got the fans involved. We really appreciate our Red Hot encore section; they really made a difference.

MEMORIES: E-s-s-s-s-u-c-c-e-s-s . . . Bonnie, Betty's version of roll call, The Whiskey Bar dance, airhead practice, Grace's successful parading, the impossible task of controlling York and Laurie, Croke and Julie learning to dance while trying to avoid being next to Shirelle in line, Patrice, Kim, and Betty's safari cheers, Dyanne's wrath, the night game against Medfield with Laurie and Karin's bright idea, Noreen getting her fingers crushed by Kim's foot, Betty and Wilma, York always elsewhere.

MOST MEMORABLE EVENTS: We will always remember doing the pep rallies because who could forget the nerve-racking performance along with the long and tortuous practices.

CREATIVE AWARDS: The chicken legs award goes to Julie Lowe. The most psychotic award goes to Laurie Nalbandian. The "Zapper" award goes to Steenie Weenie. The most likely not to be at practice or game award goes to Sandra D. The most obese award goes to Shikara . . . NOT!! The Fly Girl award goes to Shirelle Jefferson. The Best Freshman (only Freshman) award goes to Sarah Molloy. The most likely to be famous award goes to Patrice Jefferson. The Best Dessert Maker goes to Betty (Crocker).

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADING

Overall, we had a good season despite all of the mix-ups with our coach and the game schedule. However, we had a great time entertaining the crowd with our half-time dance and when the season got a little tiring, we kept our enthusiasm perked up and continued to do our best. We really improved a lot by the end of the season. A bonus was getting to know other cheerleaders from other towns.

Memories: The run-away pyramid that never got up at Mansfield . . . Betty's fall during the dance at Holliston . . . Shirelle yelling all the time trying to keep things in line.

Creative Awards: Most likely to do the opposite - Aisha O. Most likely to say something smart - Nancy T. Most likely to smile - Kim D. and Bonnie L. Most likely to cheer - Magda M. Most like to be at top of pyramids - Shirelle J. Most likely to party - Sarah. Most likely to agree - Nat M. Most likely to flip - Carmen T. Most likely to be late - Betty H.

Bequest to next year's team: Good luck with the games. Enjoy creating dances and stunts to dazzle the school. Always SMILE and CHEER LOUD!

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Boys' Basketball Team had a season marked by up's and down's, culminating in the strongest performance in the play-offs since 1986. After a slow start, Westwood lived up to its high pre-season rating by whipping previously unbeaten Dover, 60-43. Westwood dominated from start to finish, showing fans signs of their play-off potential. After an inconsistent second half of the season, Westwood pulled itself together and won two tournament games before finally falling to league-rival Medway.

Memories: Hoosiers, "Gimme 'dose!", "David!" Gatorade keg-throwing, team meetings, work hard for ten minutes, no more water

We bequeath to next year's team a Medway victory, teamwork, a clean slate, and a better Dawg Pound

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Girls' Basketball Team started out its season with a victory over Holliston by 1 point in overtime. The following games against Medfield and Hopkinton were very close but the girls took home a victory. During the Christmas Tournament, Westwood showed its strength by being up 2 points to Div. 1 state champion Brockton but ended up losing badly. One downfall of the season was when the girls lost the streak on January 17 by losing to Holliston. But the girls still tied Holliston for the TVL title. Westwood moved on to the tournament and had victories over Hopkinton, Southeast, Abington and Archbishop Williams. The team lost to Notre Dame of Tyngsboro in the semifinals, but still accomplished being the first Westwood girls' team to play in the garden.

Memories: Pulling pegs at Garden, first arrived and court was all dark, warm-ups at Garden, green snap pants, troops, track-meets, "Mr. Riley, are we there yet? I have to go to the bathroom", manic-depressants, Christy's study habits, clothes on at 8, Riley's temper, bus rides, lack of shorts with drawstrings.

Bequeath to next year's team: straight jackets, earplugs, and track shoes.

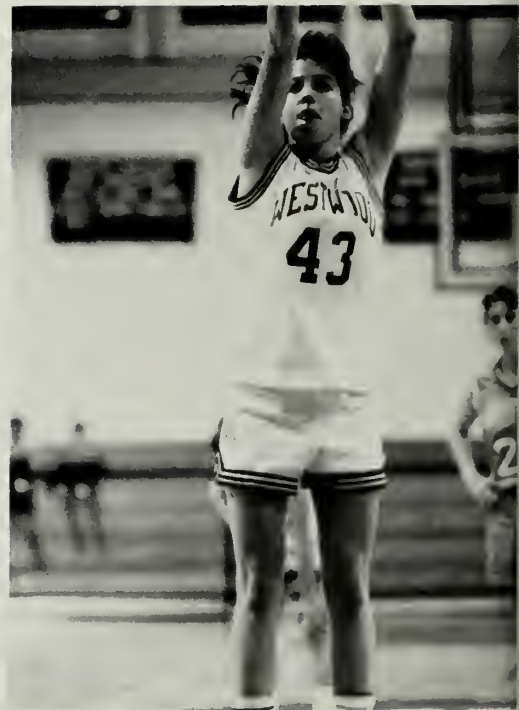

Honors: TVL co-champions with Holliston
Honors: South Sectional Champs- Eastern Mass finalists. League All-Stars-Erin O'Brien, Wendy Rowe, Amy O'Brien, Christy Kiriacopoulos. Erin O'Brien- Globe All-Scholastic

STANDOUTS

Amy, the youngest of the McCoys, was a great asset to the team, not only because of her physical talents, but also because of her sense of family tradition and team spirit.

- Alysia Ordway

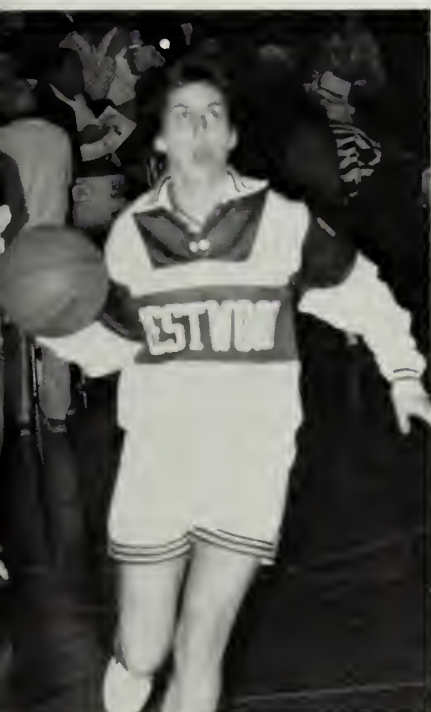

Kristy, the team's point guard and long-range specialist, delivered her 3-point bombs with accuracy to bring excitement to many close 4th quarters.

- Alysia Ordway

At the Westwood Xmas tournament against Brockton, Jen came off the bench in the 1st-half to give the team a much needed offensive lift.

BOYS' SWIMMING

The weight of our teams' success existed in the strength of the abilities of the team's individuals. We were the smallest team in number of bodies, but the individual contributions were great. BUT somehow our team became cursed with bad luck. Our best swimmers became sick, very sick, and we lost a few members to a rash of random accidents that left those members on dry land! Even though we lacked a diver this year, we managed to make up for it by finishing strong in all events, usually taking a first through third finish.

Bequest to next year's team: We seniors leave a sheet cake . . . use it well . . . pass on the memory and its power. Most memorable event: The most memorable meets were those where our team and the others met as friends, coming together to play a game. Attleboro and Seekonk had to have been the nicest teams we have ever played in any sport. Together at the meet we cheered friends on. The greatest trait that we thrived on was our ability to swim against other teams with our hardcore nice guy, yet relaxed and psyched, attitude. Honors: This season Jim Fitzgerald, Jeff Patterson, Aaron Piziali and Kevin Foster all received recognition as elected members to the Southern Conference All-Star Team.

HOCKEY

Well, what can we say - TWO IN A ROW - A FEAT NEVER DONE BEFORE AT W.H.S. The season started off with a bang taking home 17 wins in a row. Then came the wake-up call: Xaverian, the Div. 1 power house, knocked us down to a 5-1 loss. To get back on our feet we took Lynnfield to the wire beating them 3-2, which sent us gung-ho into the State Tourney.

We ended the regular season breaking many team records and giving us a great chance to REPEAT! WE WERE READY! First, we took on North Reading, then Nauset, and finally Old Rochester. They all fell to our excellent defense and outstanding goal tending. Then came Northeast for the E-Mass. Championship at the Boston Garden. With a total team effort and a fabulous play by the forward, we won, sending us to the State Championship for the 2nd time in two years. The Place: B.U. The Time: 7:00 p.m. The Date: March 12, 1992. The Team: St. Joe's of Pittsfield (Their Revenge). Well, if you were there you know what happened, so there's our season. STATE CHAMPS 1991 and 1992!

SKI TEAM

The Girls' Ski Team, captained by Cara Donlon, had another fine season, making it to the states for the second consecutive year. The team had many new freshmen join which helped them out a lot; they gave strong performances. The leaders on the team who gave outstanding performances were Jean Ladouceur, Cara Donlon, and Angela Hughes.

The Boys' Ski Team, captained by Todd Rhinerson, showed much improvement from previous years. The boys got needed help from the underclassmen as well as strong performances from Todd, a state qualifier, and Eric Shaw, an up-and-coming sophomore. The seniors wish next year's team good luck.

BASEBALL

Once again, the Wolverines didn't disappoint on the baseball diamond. The spring of '92 will be remembered as Westwood's first Tri-Valley League baseball champions since entering the league in 1979. After last year's South Sectional Champion team, Westwood was expected to be strong, and jumped out to an 11-0 league record before finally falling to Medfield. The Wolverines rebounded, however, and defeated Medfield at their place in the final game of the season to clinch the TVL championship.

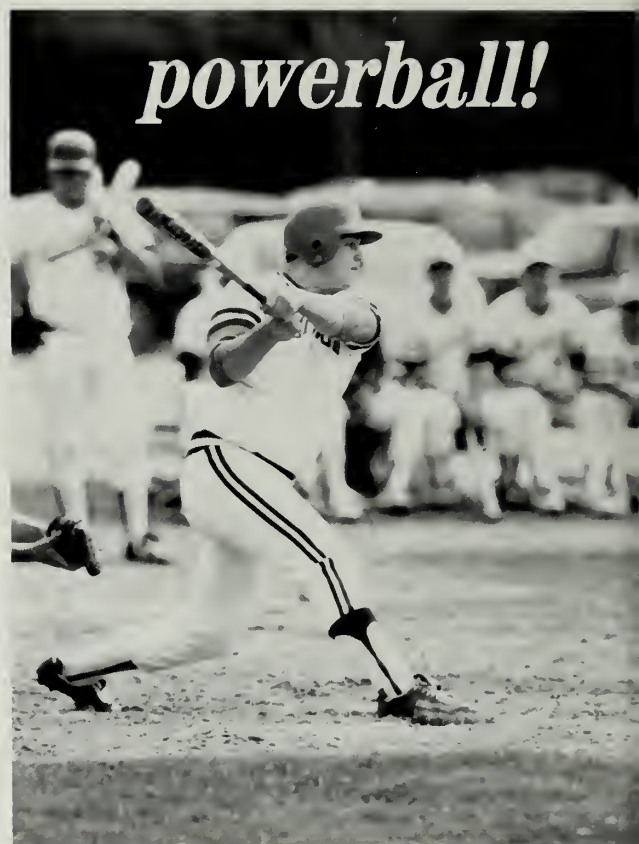

MEMORIES: Death of an Aardvark, Elio's Jinx, "Get me some dirt!", lob toss & pepper, Siggins' wheels, "Abdou!", Coach O'Leary, Chink-food, intentional walks, "Norwellians".

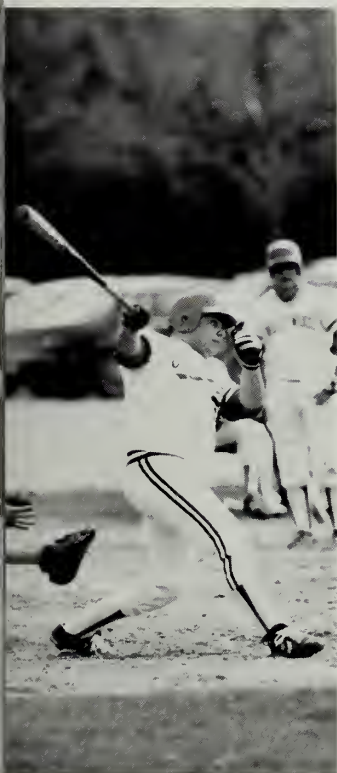

CREATIVE AWARDS: Most likely to play the wrong position: everyone, Worst luck: Elio Imbornone, Most Likely to Throw the Helmet: Mark Paster.

MOST MEMORABLE GAME: Westwood met Medfield on the final day of the regular season to decide the Tri-Valley League championship once and for all. Behind strong defense and an amazing pitching performance by Elio Imbornone, Westwood won 1-0 on a fourth-inning home run by Kurt Schliemann, thus bringing home the TVL crown for the first time in 13 years.

SOFTBALL

The Softball Team was captained by Judy Rich and Liz Brady this year. Although this wasn't the team's best season, it was definitely one of the most memorable. Under the coaching leadership of Grandmama and Uncle Frank, the capability of the team came through in the game against Bellingham. To say the scoreboard accurately depicted the team is unfair for the team had incredible individual talent. We only hope that next year's team will carry on the Grandmama tradition and we wish them the best of luck.

BOYS' TENNIS

The 1992 season will be very memorable for each member of the team. Although the team finished with a 5-7 record, it challenged opponents in every match, in the strongest league of recent memory. Losses came to D-S, Medfield, Holliston, and once to Medway, while victories came over perennial powerhouses Ashland, Millis, and once over Medway.

Under the guidance and cooperation of Coach Damish, we had a great year, played good tennis, and, most importantly, had lots of laughs.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The fifteen girls who gathered on the courts of Westwood High School on a cool day in late March would soon make up Westwood High's invincible Girls' Tennis Team. No sooner did we first gather than we jumped into our most challenging match of the season, Dover-Sherborn. In our white Nike skirts and T's, we fearlessly faced our biggest rivals; however, with little-to-no preseason practice we came out defeated. But, the season had just begun! We traveled throughout the Tri-Valley and found victories in every match along the way. Although Dover stopped our winning streak, nothing could inhibit the growth of friendships or the fun we had together. The team finished its season beating Nauset in the state tournament but lost in the quarter finals to Bishop Connelly.

Memories: Team Dad: Daddy Wagner, Ben & Jerry's, Eileen's bathing suit, Saumya & Michelle, see-through skirts, bimbo from Millis, new water bottles, Debbie's Florida oranges, all you can eat, late to Dover, diets, Liz's uncontrollable appetite, accessories, tennis undies.

Bequest for next year's team: The seniors bequeath to the tennis team artillery to beat Dover and a season's supply of oranges.

BOYS' TRACK

The Westwood High Boys' Spring Track team had one of its most successful campaigns in years, going 6-1 and capturing sole possession of second place in the league. The success of the team can be attributed to a surprising crop of new athletes and a solid core of experienced seniors. The consensus highlight of the season came when the squad downed Medfield at their place to clinch second in the league. Overall, the Wolverines had their typical trouble with the loaded Holliston Panthers, but managed to handle every other team in the league rather easily. The team sent 9 athletes to the Class-D Championships in Weston where several impressive personal bests were achieved. Six of these nine advanced to the state meet at Bridgewater State College.

Memories: 4 x 400 at Medfield, Fitz's Ashland victory, "Where are Bill and P.J.????!!", Jez's photo jump.

Creative Awards: Best Work Ethic — Tuce's disciples.

Bequeath to next year's team: A Holliston victory.

Most memorable meet: Medfield. Basically a show-down for second place, it was a see-saw battle that was decided by the last event, the 4 x 400 relay. Despite the cold weather, the Wolverines dominated the relay and clinched a well-deserved win.

GOLF

The Golf Team has another successful season and posted a 13-1 overall record. The only loss came to Medway late in the season on a course that no one on the team had played before. The team was composed of a solid core, with Tim Harrington and Andy Gozzo at the forefront. Gozzo was the league MVP, while Tim Harrington qualified for the state individual tournament, becoming only the sixth Westwood golfer ever to qualify.

MEMORIES: Tri-Valley League Tournament—Andy Gozzo hitting a goose on the first play-off hole to finish second in the tournament, Russ Flynne snapping his golf clubs.

CREATIVE AWARDS: Pathetic Golf Award — Ted Duffy for his state tourney performance; Best Spinner of the Golf Ball Award — Andy Gozzo for being able to suck the ball back at least ten feet.

MOST MEMORABLE MATCH: Match vs. Ashland where Tim Harrington and Andy Gozzo both shot 36's, Ted Duffy shot 39, and Dave McLaughlin shot 40. Total: 150

HONORS: Tri-Valley League Champs!

TVL All-Stars: Tim Harrington, Andy Gozzo.

Karaoke!

Every Tuesday morning, twenty-nine students assembled in the conference room at 7:30 for their weekly meeting. The year's activities began early in September with the promotion of the Walk for Westwood. Student Council members visited all elementary schools in order to build some enthusiasm for the walk. No sooner did students finish this event, than they jumped into the next with Halloween spirit. On October 31, students reverted to their elementary school years, arriving at school in Halloween costumes. Student Council held a costume contest and a candy apple sale. They also initiated a hallway-decorating contest between the faculty and the various grades. Student Council then proceeded to continue in its role in arousing school spirit. The students, along with the various captains, the cheerleaders, the band and color-guard, went wild at the all-sports pep rally. Homecoming Week approached soon after. The week began with Hippy Day, then Color Code Day, Twin Day, PJ Day, and finally, Green Pride Day. The week was concluded with a pep rally, a half-time parade, and a dance. The queen, king, and their court were selected and they paraded down Nahatan Street onto the football field. The annual Spring Fling also proved to be a success. Red, blue, and purple teams were divided and assigned six spirited captains. The volleyball tournament began the week, followed by the teacher scavenger hunt. Students then assembled in the cafeteria to watch the annual Mr. WHS contest. The battle between the colors continued until the end when the purple team prevailed. The week was concluded with capture the flag and the Karaoke Dance. Nearly the whole school was "captured" in the fun. Student Council also started a Buddy Program with the Downey School. Each student became an older brother or sister to a fifth grader. Student Council's year proved to be a successful one with these activities. Without the devoted assistance of our advisor, Mrs. Gail Hayes, our achievements would have been minimal. Her help was greatly appreciated by each and every member of the Student Council. Have a prosperous 1993 and good luck!

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

The Student Advisory Board, whose purpose is to act as a liaison between students, faculty, administration, and school committee, had an extremely active and productive year. They listened to student ideas and concerns and enacted upon them when necessary. The Board also extended its support and involvement in many other areas. This year, under the leadership of its officers, a week-long program of Aids Awareness and Sex Abuse was initiated. Following the speakers, discussions were held. As a result, with the support of Dr. J. Gearon, these topics will be implemented in the Health Education curriculum next year. In addition, the Board participated in a program for the homeless in Boston, sponsored a Valentine's Day Party for the Italian Home for Children, supported the Cancer Fund by participating in Daffodil Day, participated in the Walk for Aids in Boston and, on the lighter side, in the Spring Fling. All in all, it was an exciting and productive year. Also Aaron Piziali, president, ably represented WHS at all school committee meetings. The SAB would like to thank Mrs. Frances Petrakos and Mr. Charles Flahive, our advisors, for their help and support throughout the year. Their help was valued by all.

ECOLIBRIUM

During the course of the year Ecolibrium accomplished a great deal, especially for a new organization. Our year began with a school clean-up and bake sale. The remaining months were packed with meetings and activities such as the holiday trash tree, aluminum can recycling, jewelry making, petitions, letters and, of course, Earth Day. On April 15, Ecolibrium held a Pseudo-Earth Day Celebration with information booths on the rainforest, ocean pollution and recycling. In addition, our logo will be worn for years to come on our Ecolibrium t-shirts which were sold this year for the first time. We have done much, but there is much more to do. Hopefully ecological awareness will be spread throughout WHS.

Ecolibrium Active Members: Chairman-Stephanie Jones, Vice-Chairman-Jane Lee, Secretary-Treasurer-Carey Vose, Relations/Liason-Aaron Piziali. MENTORS

Mentors consists of students from all grades who serve the community. This year students participated in such activities as the Smoking Prevention Program, Handicap Awareness Program, and the Sexual Abuse Prevention Program. The purpose of these programs was to teach elementary school and middle school students about health hazards and about differences in people. In addition, Mentors, along with some parents, ran teen centers for students in the middle school. Teen centers are a place where the kids can relax and have fun dancing, playing basketball, or just hanging out with their friends. The group also went into Boston several weekends during the year and worked in various shelters and soup kitchens. Without all the devoted help from our advisors, Rob Stodolnik and Grace Mignose, Mentors would not have been able to have done all that it did for the Westwood Community. Thanks for all your help!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is a service organization comprised of students who have maintained high academic standards throughout their high school careers. This year NHS members volunteered at the Massachusetts Hospital School as activity assistants and tutored other high school students in various subjects. Throughout the spring months, members travelled to the Downey School to assist third graders with drafting and editing their stories for a Young Authors' Conference in May. The organization also raised over $400 for the Christina Grueter Scholarship Fund by taking student pictures with Santa Claus and raffling U2 concert tickets. President Alysia Ordway, Vice President Alicia Hamwey, Secretary Diane Costello, Treasurer Brad Rutan and all of the other NHS members would like to thank our advisor, Miss Dillon, for all of her help this year and wish the NHS the best of luck next year.

The Spanish Honor Society, or as the members prefer to call it, the Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica, accomplished a lot this year with its crew of bright, dedicated students. The club continued its tradition of serving ice cream at lunch one Friday a month. If a student asks for the flavor in Spanish, he gets a discount of a quarter; otherwise, the ice cream costs a dollar. The treat is a nice break from the monotony of Otis Spunkmeyer's chocolate chip cookies. On frequent visits to the Hanlon school, students taught the kindergarten classes the basics of Spanish. The young children were attentive and remembered most of what they were taught from visit to visit. Another popular event was "Buena Suerte" grams. These good luck grams were sent to students from anyone to wish them good fortune for their midyear and final exams. The package included three blowpops, and a brief message from the friend or teacher. In addition to the three activities mentioned, the Society also offered tutoring in the seminar room almost every block. The members should be proud of their dedication and efforts, and would like to give a special thanks to Señora Perry, who is keeping the momentum of the club going so strongly.

During the month of February, Señora Perry took nine students to Spain. They stayed with a home-stay family for two weeks and attended school in Salamanca. On the weekends, they visited other towns outside of Salamanca, such as Zamora, Segovia, and San Martin. While in school, the students studied grammar, culture, practiced conversing with Spaniards, as well as visiting historic sights in Salamanca. Then the group traveled to Madrid, where they toured the city, visiting historic monuments such as Valley of the Fallen, The Escorial, and El Greco's house in Toledo. The group also attended a soccer game in Madrid, and experienced Spanish culture firsthand. Muchísimas gracias to Señora Perry for all her hard work in making it such a great trip!

SOCIÉTÉ HONORARE DE FRANCAIS

The French National Honor Society is designed to increase interest and knowledge in the French language and culture. The Society had a dinner with the Spanish National Honor Society in mid-December; the potluck supper and gift exchange were both a success. The two societies also collaborated on a bilingual cookbook. Thanks, Mrs. Rice, for your help and patience.

MUSICAL GROUPS

The Music Department once again put on their annual spring Pops concert. Performances were given by the orchestra, percussion ensemble, concert band, jazz band, and the American Voices chorus. The Music Department gave a heart felt thanks to Miss Trisorio for her years of dedication and support. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to both Miss Trisorio and to Mr. Guirleo.

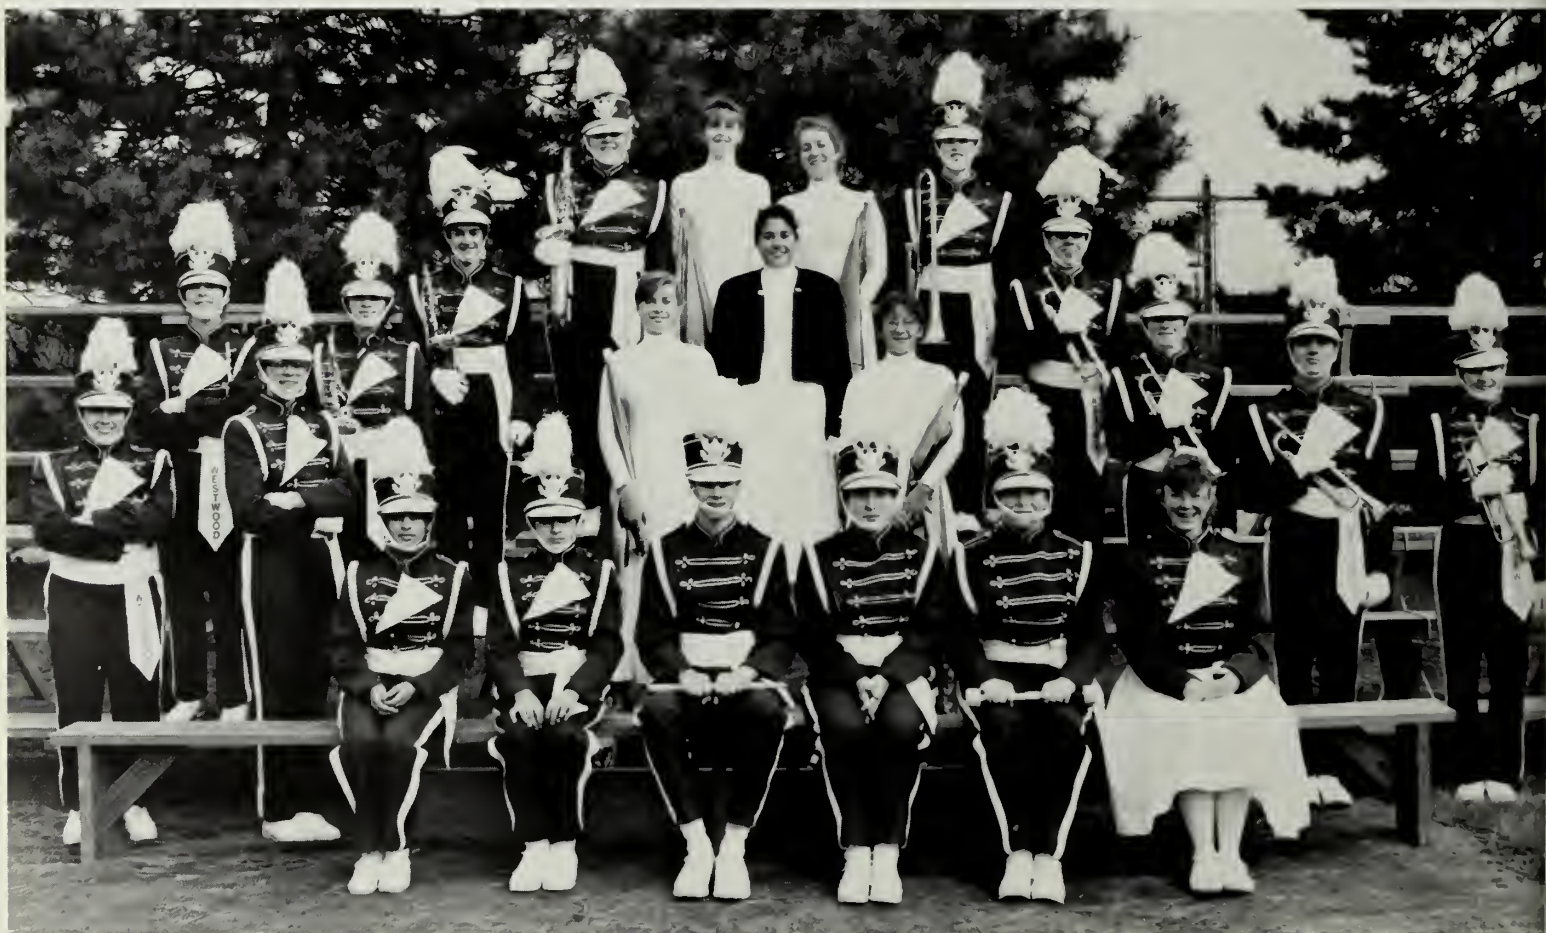

"American Voices"

The Music Department and the Drama Club combined this year to perform a unique musical entitled "American Voices." The show which was directed by Mr. Guirleo, Mrs. Kelsch, and Miss Trisorio, travelled all the way to the United Nations in New York City. The performance, combining dance, drama, and music, told the story of America's early years. While in New York City, the group was able to see "Phantom of the Opera" and "Cats." The trip was a great success.

MARCHING BAND

The Marching Band experienced yet another successful year. Although we were the smallest competing band in New England, we managed to capture numerous awards, including Best Music, and Best Drum Major. The Wolverine Marching Band would like to thank their officers; Lori McKenna, President; Emily Moore, Vice-President; Pamela Griffin, Treasurer; and Amy Gibbons, Secretary, for their hard work and dedication. A special thanks also goes to drum major Alicia Hamwey and colorguard captain Erin Chipley. We would especially like to commend band director Mr. James Giurleo for his time, energy, and tremendous ability in keeping the spirit of green pride alive in all of us.

Lori and Pam display their usual enthusiasm for music.

WINTERGUARD LEGACY

There was a great deal of pressure to repeat the winning 1991 season put on Legacy as we started the 1992 season. At the classification competition on March 2, 1992 Legacy was classified in the Open Class which put us in the highest competing class. This was quite a jump from the Novice class we competed in last year. N.E.S.B.A. decided to add a fourth class this year because there were so many schools competing — a total of eighteen guards competed. When the fourth class was added we were changed to Class A which was the third highest competing class.

After several months of practicing two evenings a week and Saturdays, we began our rigorous competition schedule on March 1, 1992, at Randolph High School. The following weekend we competed at Duxbury High School on the 7th and King Philip in Wrentham on the 8th. On the 15th we hosted a competition at Westwood High School and the final weekend before finals we competed at Case High School in Swansee on the 21st and Dover High School in Dover, New Hampshire, on the 22nd. Finals competition were held at Case Gym, Boston University on March 29th. We also exhibited at a competition on March 28th which was held at Westwood High School.

Legacy placed first at the Duxbury and Dover, NH, competitions and second at the remainder of the competitions throughout the month of March. We also placed second in our division at the finals competition, while placing fourth overall which meant we scored higher than some of the guards in the highest competing class.

We, the seniors, wish to see our Legacy continue for many years to come. Memories: "I Feel Bad", "One Moment In Time", Minnie Mouse, "Turn the Beat Around", attitude, across the floors, moving tables, We get the gym!!, smile, but dance (oh my back!).

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Front Row (L to R): Elizabeth Brady, Lynn Santopietro, Chris Blomquist, David Collier, Alysia Ordway, Stacey Doyle.

In the Spring of 1991, four junior girls from Westwood High School represented their class at Massachusetts Girls' State held at Mount Holyoke College. Girls' State provides young women from across Massachusetts the opportunity to spend an entire week learning about the political system in the United States by participating and functioning in a mock government. All four Girls' State representatives gained a great deal from this experience and felt they acquired many valuable skills during the week-long seminar. The Boys' State Representatives spent one week at Bentley College studying the workings of the US government. Boys' State was an excellent opportunity to meet student leaders from other high schools and to better understand the functions of a democratic society.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM

During the winter this past year Mike Cafarella and Deborah Ringel travelled down to Washington D.C. to attend a program called Presidential Classroom. While there, the students gained a new perspective into the political process.

In the first few days, they attended numerous seminars, visited different historical sites, and participated in cross-fire debates on today's issues. In the last few days, the students spent time on Capitol Hill meeting with their congressmen and many others politicians. By these experiences, Presidential Classroom teaches "the youth of today how to become the leaders of tomorrow."

Debbie and Mike would like to thank the WTA and the League of Women Voters for their financial support that made this experience possible.

Yes, yes, we are the Math Team. We do math, and we don't fool around, either. The team was first in the South-eastern Mass. Math League (for small schools) and a very close second in the greater Boston Mathematics League (also for small schools). We then went on to compete in the states, a real prestigious honor. Debbie Ringel, for her second consecutive year, made the state team while Julie Mao progressed to the second level of the Olympiad. All of these achievements could never have been realized had it not been for the support of one very special individual, Mr. James Pender. Truly a man of devotion and astounding brain power, he was the very reason for our neverending quest and fulfillment of victory. Thanks JP!

SCHOOL STORE

The School Store experienced its most profitable year yet with the help of Mrs. Carol Rosengarten, our advisor, and the store's energetic staff. Don't ever forget the cans of fury, Mallowcup championships, and the key master disaster. Good Luck to next year's staff and long live the vicious circle. The store's success could not have been achieved without our expanded candy offerings and selling Domino's pizza at the basketball games.

MORNING ANNOUNCERS

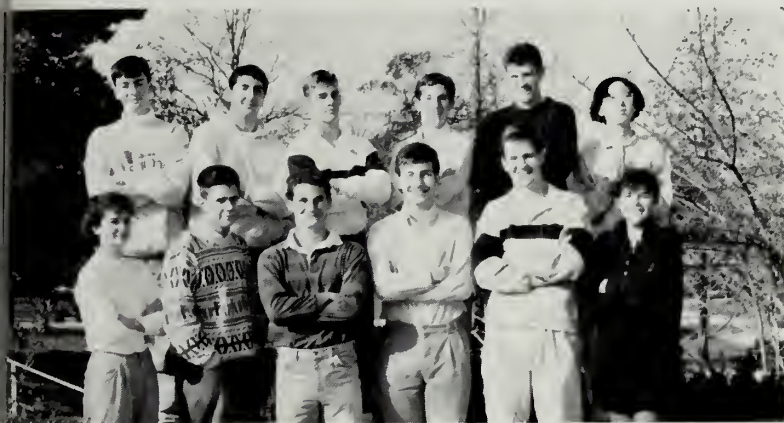

It's not as easy as it looks. At the end of their junior year, students tried out for a position as "morning announcer," and the lucky ones soon received their assignments. Each announcer was expected to arrive in the front office before the bell, proofread announcements and decipher teachers' handwriting. In general, the student announcers utilized their wonderful and creative minds to provide the student body with relevant information. Each announcer was dedicated, punctual, and patient. They're a great bunch of guys. A special thanks to Mrs. Stephanie Kelsch for making the final selections and keeping tabs on our performances.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation announced in September, 1991, that twelve students from Westwood High School earned honors for their performance on the October, 1990, National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Exam. To earn the status of national Merit Semi-Finalist, a student must earn a qualifying score that places him/her in the top 1/2 percent of the over one million students in the 19,000 secondary schools that participated in this program. In all, 15,000 students nation-wide earned this status. At Westwood High School we are proud that two students are among this select group: Michael Cafarella and Matthew Prout. These two students also qualified as Finalists.

To earn the status of National Merit Commended Student, a student must earn a qualifying score that places him/her in the top 5% of all student participants across the country. In all, 35,000 students earned this status. At Westwood High School, we are proud that ten students are among this select group: Christopher Burgess, Michael Dowd, Raymond Jowdy, Shannon Keyes, Norman Liljestrand, Julie Mao, David O'Rourke, Deborah Ringel, Brad Rutan, Mark C. Sullivan.

Promotion of scholastic competition is the goal of this organization. This year Westwood entered a team of 10 seniors and one junior in the small schools division of the competition which was held here at Westwood High School in November. The team placed sixth in its division.

The team qualified for the finals held at Westwood High School in March. The team placed 13th in the States. The Coach's Medal was awarded to the team's highest scorer: Michael Cafarella.

Senior team members included Christian Blomquist, Michael Dowd, Victor Ganson, Mark Haverty, Julie Hunter, Sean Libbey, Norman Liljestrand, Julie Mao, Deborah Ringel.

On it's glorious quest to win medals, the team inadvertently unveiled the forbidden knowledge of the universe, the mystical secret of life, the high holy wonders of Truth, and the Powers of enlightened consumption: Triviality! Trinkets! T-Shirts! Free Food!

Taking a break at competition

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

Brian and I, seeing as this first event took place at North Quincy High School, learned our first lesson in state politics: wrestling traffic on the Southeast Expressway at 8:00 am. The normally 15 to 20 minute ride took us at least an hour and 15 minutes, but luckily by the time we got there, the proceedings had not begun. As Brian and I stepped into the room, the door slammed behind us with a crash . . . Brian and I sat in the back of the crowd taking all of the new Government Day atmosphere in . . . Three gentlemen spoke during the proceedings: one from the Quincy Judicial System, one from the Office of the Secretary of State, and an actual representative. The first speaker explained the complexity of the Massachusetts Court System and how it creates trouble in the actual process of cases. The second speaker was the Assistant Secretary of State and all he really had to say that he was proud of this and proud of that—basically campaigning to a bunch of students . . . The third speaker gave us all quite an in-depth lesson of the legislative process. The thing that sticks out most in my mind, unfortunately, was the second speaker . . . I gained a lot from watching this man campaign for the state department in front of a bunch of high school students. All we really wanted to know was how the system works to give us all a basic idea for GOVERNMENT DAY when we debate ideas. This gentleman, however, stood there and took about an hour of our time telling us how proud he was that the state department built the JFK library under budget and in quicker time than was budgeted . . . The experience was very important to me because it helped to confirm my distrust of politicians and my desire to stay as far away from becoming a politician as I can. It's very hard for me to even be in the same room with one without becoming incredibly frustrated. Oh, well, that's what I learned.

Brian Conley and Andy Owens

SAFE RIDES

Safe Rides is a club that picks up students who have been drinking and need a ride home. It is impossible to stop students from drinking altogether, so if they are going to drink, it is important that they have a safe ride home so there will be no drunk-driving accidents. This club was made up of about fifty members who gave up one weekend night every couple of months to be on call. Four different people would be on call each Friday and Saturday night and they would be at a designated house to answer calls of people who needed a ride home. This club has accomplished a lot in the past few years since its organization for there have been no drunk-driving accidents. This year many students took advantage of this service and it could have made a difference in someone's life. Many thanks to Mr. Flahive for all of his help this year because we couldn't have done it without him.

This year, Westwood High School's Peer Educator group was bigger than ever. Under the guidance of Mrs. Linda Hanlon, we made frequent visits to the Thurston Middle School to make presentations to the younger students. Self-image, relationships with friends, and decision making were just some of the topics touched upon. With each visit, the younger children learned some of life's most important lessons. We worked directly with the children and we, in turn, learned from them. We would all like to thank Mrs. Hanlon for her help, support and encouragement.

PEER COUNSELORS

Westwood High School's Peer Counselors consist of a handful of caring juniors and seniors dedicated to helping others. This year's peer counselors became actively involved in the freshman/sophomore orientation workshop. In this workshop, the peer counselors posed controversial questions to Westwood's anxious and confused underclassmen. The group also facilitated the Career Center's "Discovery" program which was designed to help students choose careers and colleges. This year's group of counselors would especially like to thank Ms. Carol Armstrong, our hard-working advisor, for her enthusiasm and support.

NO PARENTHESES

No Parentheses continued its role as the literary cultural vanguard for Westwood High (it remains the school's only literary magazine), collecting whatever good and beautiful and creative works we found, and concocting as potent a Mixture of the True as we could. Our efforts didn't always sell a lot of copies, but our goals were great, our purpose high, and we are now the fastest typists on the planet. The magazine continued its now two year-long tradition of biannual publishing, and we also took a few more steps down the tortuous twisting road of computerization. (Now if we could just do something about that wretched photocopier . . .) Sparkling kisses of thanks go to our advisor, Mrs. Gail Hayes, and everyone who wrote and copied and read so much during The Deadline Weeks—the value of your work has been inestimable.

The 1991-1992 Drama Club had yet another unique year. Our first production "Politically Correct Comedy" presented some excerpts from plays famous by Neil Simon. Despite "technical difficulties," the show went on and was a great success. Our spring production "Impossible Casts" presented an inside view of what our advisor, Mrs. Kelsch, really puts up with. In April the Drama Club with the Music Department put on a mini-musical "American Voices" at Westwood High School and in New York City.

In times of financial difficulties, it is good to see students and faculty members working together to keep the fine arts alive. President Lori McKenna and advisor Mrs. Kelsch worked very hard to make this season a tremendous success.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Thousands of people are in prison because of their beliefs. Many of these political prisoners are held without a charge or trial; torture and the death penalty are wide spread. In many countries men, women, and children have "disappeared" after being taken into custody. Amnesty International, a worldwide movement, works for the release of these prisoners. Members of Amnesty at WHS wrote letters to officials in such countries as Peru, Chile, China, United States, Turkey, and South Africa. In addition, Amnesty had its Battle of the Bands III as a fund raiser, and a guest speaker, who was a POC. Lots of petition signing by both students and faculty, an awareness display in the Media Center, and a 31st anniversary celebration also occurred. Furthermore, movies and segments from such shows as 60 minutes were viewed as a way to keep members informed of what was taking place in their world today. Amnesty would like to thank Mr. Burke and Mr. Delaney for their time, effort, and enthusiasm throughout the year. The seniors of Amnesty wish the advisors and the other members the best of luck in their future endeavors.

HUMAN RIGHTS SQUAD

The purpose of the Human Rights Squad is to raise the awareness of all Westwood High School students to the harmful effects of discrimination, particularly racism, sexism, and religious intolerance. In addition to group discussions, we had a Sunday workshop facilitated by Holly Metcalf and Lynn Dawson from Project Teamwork. The club hopes to take its message to the elementary and middle schools as well. We would like to thank Scott Goldman for organizing this group and for supporting us throughout the year.

UNICEF

Unicef helps protect the lives of children and promote their development all over the world. This year the WHS Unicef representatives visited the Sheehan School and got the younger students involved. At Halloween we collected $725 to help the children in Bolivia. We were very successful this year thanks to the help of Mrs. Peggy Davis and Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey.

KEY CLUB

Key Club is a volunteer organization which helps the elderly, special needs students and the homeless. Students individually volunteer their services by doing such things as teaching retarded citizens how to cook and by helping out at nursing and elderly homes. Members also do group activities such as collecting canned goods for the homeless on Thanksgiving and collecting toys for poor children at Christmas. This year was our most successful year for we collected more toys and canned foods than we ever had before. Also for the first time, Key Club planned to make a donation to a needy organization at the end of the year. We would all like to thank Mrs. Matteson for all her help and support.

The Governance Committee, formed in October, 1990, in response to student concerns consists of teachers and students from the Westwood High School community. The Committee's goal is to create a democratic form of government at the high school which will provide the students, staff and administration with the practical experience of participating in the political process through school elections, and legislative and judicial action. In the fall of 1992, the Bill of Rights was passed in separate referendums by the staff and students of Westwood High. The Governance Committee finalized a draft of the Constitution which was voted on by the school community in April. Under the direction of acting chairpersons, Mr. Thomas Brown and Mrs. Nancy Walsh, the WHS Governance Committee's work on designing a viable Constitution has helped us to develop a greater sense of community in our school.

Co-Editor: Debbie Ringel, Faculty Advisor: Mrs. Frances Petrakos, Co-Editor: Emily Moore

Associate Editor: Liz Brady

Associate Editor: Pam Griffin

Business Editors: Laurie Schreiber and Jen Barsamian

The Class of 1992 excelled in so many areas and is worthy of recognition. The Green Years staff selected the theme "Ahead of Our Time" to illustrate just how special this class is and to reflect on our time spent here at Westwood High School.

Creating Green Years 1992 was a very long, difficult, yet gratifying project. Work on the book began in early fall and lasted right through the summer. At times, it seemed as if the book would never be finished but the staff continued to work extremely hard, knowing that soon the Class of 1992 would have something to mark their years spent at Westwood High School.

It was also a year of change. The staff moved away from the traditional yearbook to something a little more out of the ordinary. For example, for the first year ever the formal senior section was done in color and a candid section was added to accompany senior biographies. Jen Connors and Kurt Schleimann worked long hours creating a sports section different from any other.

The entire staff made significant contributions. However, it was the Class of 1992 that made this yearbook so good. Because of the incredible enthusiasm, there were more baby pictures than ever before, a record setting number of advertisements, and a successful candid section. Everyone deserves credit for the finished product.

The Green Years staff would like to thank our advisor Mrs. Fran Petrakos for time and commitment to the yearbook. Without her endless support, there would be no yearbook. We would also like to thank Mr. Charles Flahive for taking pictures whenever we needed coverage.

Working virtually everyday after school, through the summer, and even during vacations has finally paid off. We are very proud and excited about the book. We would like to thank all who contributed to this timeless memory.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

HALLOWEEN

GHOSTS, GOBLINS, STUDENTS???

The Halloween festivities began with the students and faculty decorating a specific hallway the day before Halloween. The sophomores did a spooky job on the math hallway - it was almost too scary to walk down there. Also the students were urged to dress up in costumes. The most original costume was Alicia Hamwey's life-size Coke can. The best costume that fit a personality was Kristy K. as Slash. Dr. Earls had the best mask, but did he really have one on? With tail swinging, Jen Connors swept up best overall costume as a dragon. Jill Santopietro's telephone and Mrs. Staiti's pumpkin costumes were also winners. The funniest was Ken Carter and the scariest was Mrs. Perry. And last, but not least, the grade with the most participants was, of course, the seniors!

The four amigos.

GREEN PRIDE

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Week, held November 4th-8th, started off with Monday as Color Code Day: the seniors wore black; the juniors, blue; the sophomores, red; and the freshmen, white. There was very good participation in the freshman and senior classes. Tuesday was Pajama Day, in which all grades participated. Pigtailed, teddy bears, slippers, and blankets were everywhere to be seen. If one thought he was seeing double in Wednesday, Twin Day, it was only Carey Vose and Joy Howland. Or was it Theresa Curran and Jen Babcock? Meaghan Gadd and Wendy Rowe made a good Mr. Tucelli, just as Mr. Chatterton and Dr. Earls did "Hanz and Franz." All in all, the day was a success. On Thursday, Woodstock was relived by the students as Hippie Day. Kristine Sivacek was definitely born in the wrong decade. Others who looked "groovy" were Donna Guglielmi, Karen Lepri, Erica Hesch, Ms. Tosca, Ms. Hayes, and John Smith. Friday, Green Pride Day, showed which students had a lot of pride. Ken Carter and Vicki Lehmann were exceptional that day!

The week ended with a Pep Rally on Friday afternoon. Led by Rob Duffy, Lynn Santopietro, and Stacey Doyle as the Wolverine, the students cheered the great performances by the cheerleaders, the band, and the color guard. The homecoming queen and her court were also announced. Elected as queen this year was Meri Liddell with Julie Lowe and Sandra DiMartino as senior court members, Kristy Doyle represented the junior class; Jill Santopietro, the sophomores; and Heather Liddell, the freshmen. The next day, culminating Green Pride Week, Westwood played a great football game against Wayland and won, 28-6.

THE DATING GAME

"Odd Couples"

The Dating Game was started this year at Westwood High, and considering its success, it will probably become a tradition. Interested students were interviewed by Alysia, Chris, and Mike in order to be matched up with other contestants. During the show the crowd cheered as the bachelors and bachelorettes answered some not-so-usual questions. At the dance on Saturday night, after the couples had gone out on their dates, they shared their experiences (both good and bad) with the students.

Jen and Chris were victims of the dating game.

Andy made quite a game show host.

SPRING FLING WEEK

This year the Student Council organized yet another successful Spring Fling week. The Red, Purple, and Blue Teams all participated in a scavenger hunt, capture the flag contest, and volleyball tournaments, each hoping to come out on top. The Mr. Westwood High School contest was well attended, as was the Spring Fling dance, which featured Karaoke. Team members gathered points throughout the events and by the end of the week, students were not surprised by the Purple Team's victory.

The Red Team gathers to plan their strategy.

Victor helps the Purple Team stay on top of things.

The Mr. WHS judges concentrate on choosing the best man for the title.

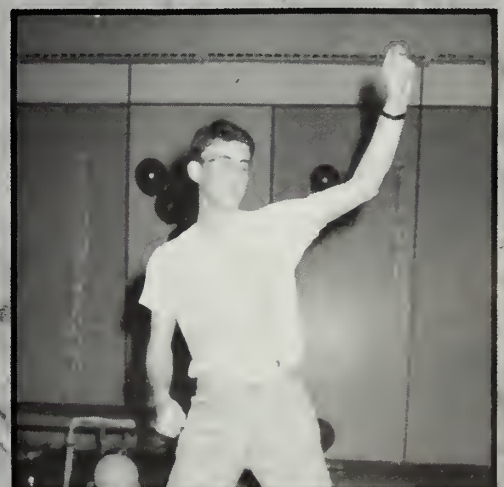

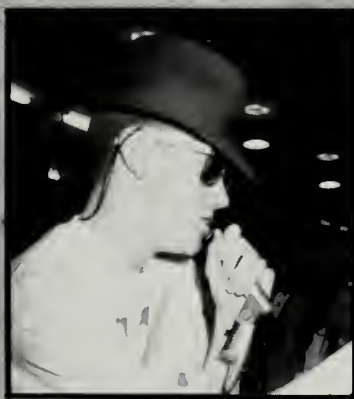

MR. WHS

The Mr. WHS contest was one of the most popular Spring Fling events this year. The nine contestants dressed up, were questioned, and were asked to act out their answer to the question, "How would you . . .". The contestants entertained us with their skits and by the end of the evening, the decision was a hard one. The judges finally chose their man and Andy Owens stepped forward to receive his title of Mr. WHS.

IMPOSSIBLE CASTS

Westwood High's talented Drama Club chanted, dusted, and misquoted Cinderella, much to the amusement of students and faculty in this year's winter production of "Impossible Casts." The cast performed two one-act plays, "Four Little Words" and "Last Dress Rehearsal." Mrs. Stephanie Kelsch, the club's advisor, directed the show and deserves much credit for the performance. Thanks to Lori McKenna, Student Director, and the backstage crew for all their work.

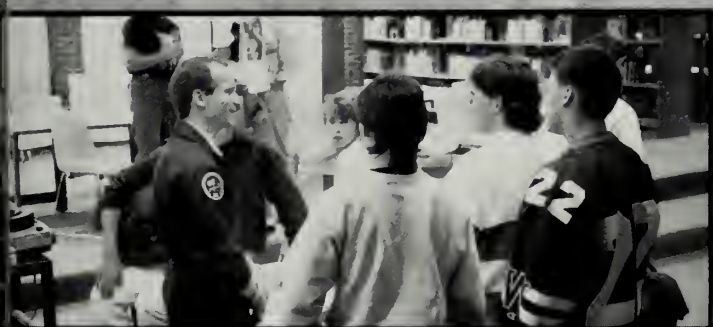

GUEST SPEAKERS

Many students were lucky enough to attend the presentation by Charles Precourt, an astronaut from NASA. Two of his topics were about weightlessness in space and about the uses of space for environmental reasons. He also spoke on his great admiration for Neil Armstrong.

Four retired great athletes, Luis Tiant, Norm Van Lier, Holly Metcalf, and Bob McCabe, came to our school as members of Project Teamwork. The goal of this organization is to inform students on issues like stereotyping, discrimination and racism. They spoke of their personal experiences involving these issues during their professional careers. The Human Rights Squad was formed following this strong and influential presentation. During the year other speakers and groups addressed the students at Westwood High.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

In the spring, Amnesty International hosted the third annual Battle of the Bands. The night consisted of local rock bands and student speakers promoting their letter writing campaign to free political prisoners. The acts included Down With the Bass, Illusion, Rickets, Tree, and The Passengers. The event was extremely successful in raising money for the group and in increasing awareness.

Life ultimately means taking the responsibility to find the right answers to its problems and to fulfill the tasks which it constantly sets for each individual. I'd like to say thanks to those who lived with me in pleasure and in suffering. The pleasure which was natural and happy and the suffering which we had realized had hidden opportunities for achievement. Suffering had become a task in which we didn't want to turn our backs. Because it gave meaning to our lives, which was pure united pleasure.

DOCTRINE OF 5 UNIVERSAL TRUTHS

1. Sight confirms reality. TV, and TV alone, generates truth. Fudge is the derivative of chocolate.
2. Paroxysm is a sudden fit of paroxysm.
3. John Stuart Mill is defined to be god.
4. AP score is proportional to human value. (Footnote: W. Wright)
5. Genuine arrogance is a divine right bestowed only upon the elite few. All other forms are feeble attempts at adequacy.

In Loving Memory Of Mr. Calvin D. Topalian

To honor the memory of Mr. Calvin A. Topalian teacher of Physics
friend and colleague

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much, who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children, who has filled his niche and accomplished his task, who has left the world better than he found it."

"Cal Topalian left the world better than he found it. As I thought of Cal, I looked at my hand and I saw him as husband, father, son, friend, and teacher. He achieved a profound success in each of these roles. It is in his role as teacher that I wish to pay him tribute today. I believe that his life, his influence, and his memory touch all of us here and many who are not here today. He was a man who made a difference. He walked the halls of Westwood High School and put his unique stamp on all that he did, all that he touched. His presence in the classroom was one of warmth and humor. He had his own style- he always tried to link learning with fun. He knew that students who could find physics fun would become lifelong learners. He did indeed gain the respect of intelligent men. His students knew the value of understanding a difficult concept, but they also knew while the subject matter should be taken seriously, there was no need to take themselves or their teacher too seriously. Laughter was his trademark. He made learning fun. He knew where learning became fun - then this knowledge opened the doors of success. As one of his students said "The thing I'll remember most about physics is Mr Topalian's impersonations." He entertained as he taught. He brought his own collection of toys to the classroom - the most memorable perhaps was a scruffy little bear -

The bear, his pet, was used to demonstrate the "center of gravity"; it was once abducted. Ransom notes were sent for the return of his pet. All of you know he blamed me for the bearnapping. I was as innocent as the driven snow. The bear was ultimately returned and gravity was once more saved for the universe.

Boy, when he demonstrated centripetal force - he used a bucket practically filled with water. The experiment was a roaring success, the floor was washed, the concept clarified and a new key to learning was achieved.

The dedication of the 1986 "Green Years" was a personal high point for Cal. Quoting from it, I can say that the students saw him as both a trusted and loyal friend. There is nothing more that students can say about a teacher.

I was sitting in Phil Flaherty's, the principal of the high school, office the other day. He said I quote, "Yes, we can get another physics teacher, but never another Cal."

In closing I would like to quote from one of William Shakespeare's plays Julius Ceasar - Mark Antony's famous funeral speech in which he was talking about Caesar.

"There was a man - when will come such another!"

Yes - there was a teacher - when comes such another!

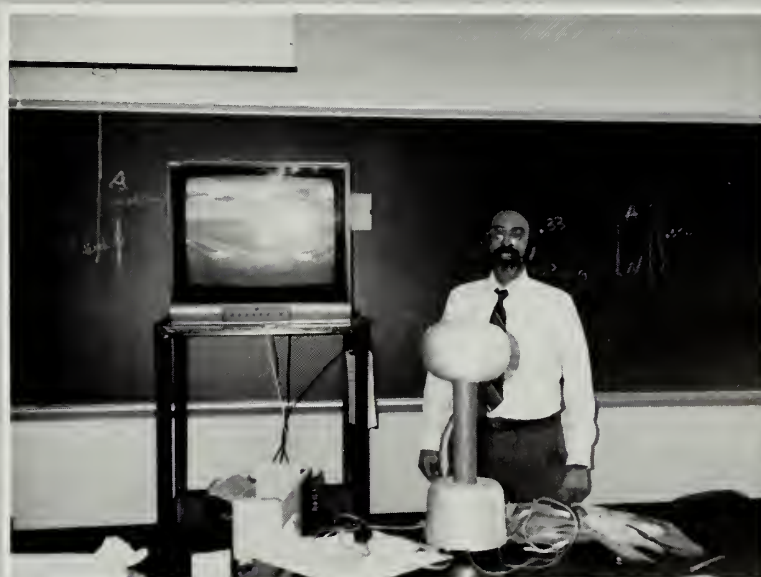

- Mr. Donald Beurman

"Always giving more of yourself than necessary, you added warmth to the classroom by making us unafraid to approach a challenge, eager to attack a problem. You were always there to lend support and reassure us of our strengths and abilities. Both in and out of the classroom, you provided us with guidance and with a new perspective — you became for us, a trusted and loyal friend."

"IT IS THE SUPREME ART OF THE TEACHER TO AWAKEN JOY IN CREATIVE EXPRESSION AND KNOWLEDGE."

SENIOR BARBECUE

The first senior class event of the year was a tremendous success. It was the perfect autumn day for the senior class barbecue. As we sat and ate on the track, Powder Puff teams finished up their game plans. After the meal, we made our way on to the field. Seniors made their first senior event of the year one of the best.

Victory is assured.

I gotta fill up before the big game.

This chicken looks pretty good.

POWDER PUFF

The early afternoon October air was filled with anticipation. Schliemann's Demons, Nal's Notorious Gals, Smitty's Kiddies, and Duff's Dirty Devils were out to pulverize Coach Cal's team. Of course, the girls were victorious in this grueling challenge, thanks to clever coaching strategies and the refereeing of Mr. Relleva. Two long weeks of intense practices paid off; the girls became football experts. Coach Cal's team put on a good show but it wasn't enough to beat the deadly defense and offense of the girls. However, halftime was perhaps the most amusing part of the game. Shaving cream was sprayed, eggs were thrown, and people were tackled. The Powder Puff game was yet another highlight of our senior year.

Don't go, Matt! They'll tear you to pieces!

SENIOR BANQUET

"Memories of Yesterday Dreams of Tomorrow"

The Senior Class participated in yet another memorable event. We spent the evening thanking teachers, reflecting on the past, and looking ahead to the future. Miss Francesca Trisorio, Mr. David Walsh, and Mr. Russell Downes, retiring teachers received standing ovations as we showed our appreciation for their years of dedication and friendship. Seniors were recognized in various categories as the infamous Senior Superlatives were announced. "Novel Quest" was extremely successful in uniting the class. Each table was given a number and Dr. Gearon announced various tasks. It was a scavenger hunt within the cafeteria. The night ended with a slide show of the way we used to be. We all enjoyed laughing at baby pictures. The senior class banquet helped us relive memories and create new ones.

What's wrong with your ear, Dave?

Raise your hands if you're sure!

I had better play it safe!

BEACH TRIP

The Senior Class traveled to Crane Beach this spring for the annual beach trip, and for the first time in years, the weather was perfect. Between the three catered meals, students played volleyball, walked along the beach, and a few even dared the frigid water. At the end of the day, despite sunburns and windblown hair, everyone was reluctant to head back to beachless Westwood.

Aaron ponders the nutritional value of steamers.

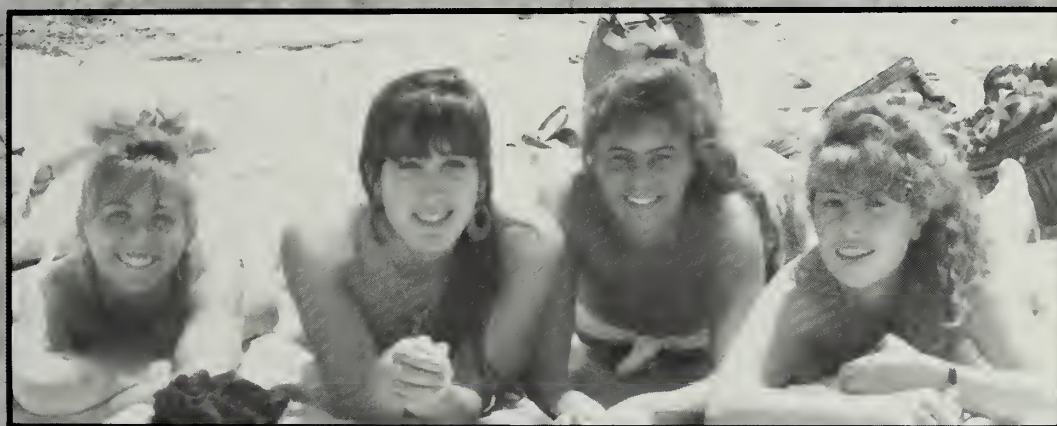

Is this Muscle Beach?

Erin and Jen enjoy their day in the sun.

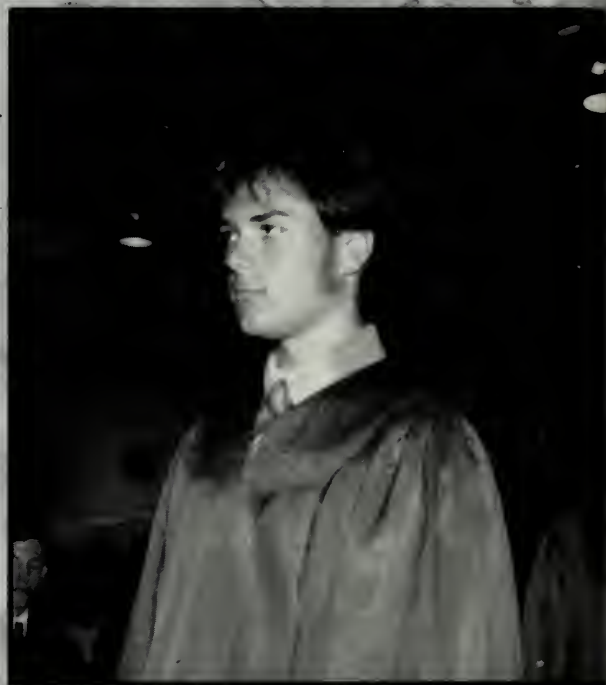

Dave, will you share your free soda with me?

CLASS NIGHT

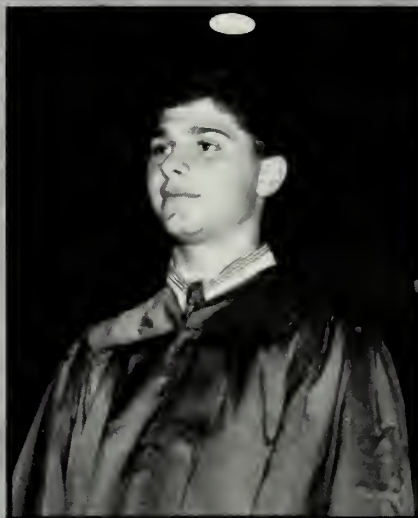

At the beginning of the night, students enjoyed a cafeteria style dinner with friends and family. Following dinner, parents smiled as they watched the Class of 1992 march into the gymnasium for Class Night. Students, at this time, received awards based on numerous different categories including scholarship, athletics, leadership, service, and character. The ceremony came to a conclusion with the dedication of Green Years 1992 to Mr. James Pender.

"Apples are the fruit of knowledge."

Look at what I got.

PROM

On May 15, 1992, the Junior-Senior prom was held at the Sheraton Tara Hotel in Braintree. All those who attended arrived elegantly dressed as they made their way towards the dance floor to join the court in dancing to the theme song "Forever." Diane Costello was crowned prom queen with Stacey Doyle, Kerry Coleman, Jennifer Connors, and Betty Herard on her court. Junior court members were Tricia Higgins, Kathy Walencis, Joy Howland, and Wendy Rowe. We would like to thank Mr. Edward Baker and the prom committee for one of the most successful proms in Westwood High School history.

Do we have to smile?

Cheers!

What do you think you're doing?

L to R: Juniors Joy Howland, Kathy Walencis, Patricia Higgins, Wendy Rowe, Kurt Schliemann with Queen Diane Costello, Seniors Jennifer Connors, Betty Herard, Stacey Doyle, Kerry Coleman.

John chooses his own prom court.

This beats cafeteria food.

George serenades Corinna on the dance floor.

Okay, I'm here! The prom can start now!

GRADUATION

Family and friends watched in quiet anticipation as the colorful graduates and faculty marched toward the field. The ceremony opened with a farewell speech by the retiring Mr. Russell Downes. Following this farewell, the students were all touched by Chris Blomquist's words of friendship and appreciation, as well as Norman Liljestrand's words of inspiration and motivation. Everyone eagerly waited for the presentation of awards and scholarships. With the last beat of the bass drum, the Class of 1992 became graduates.

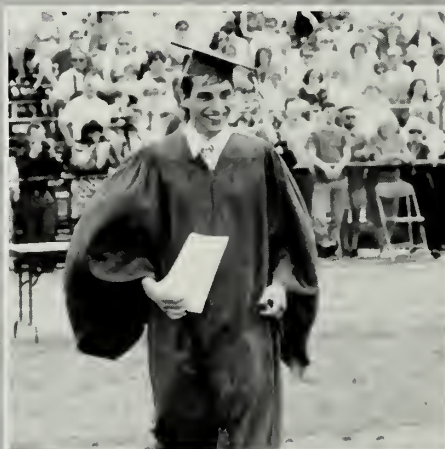

This is more fun than four years of high school put together.

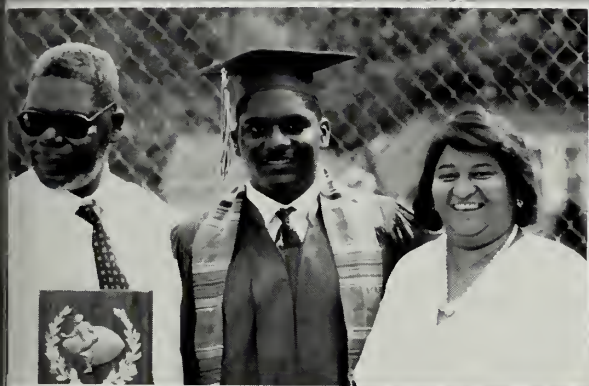

Oh man, I forgot my sunglasses!

I hope Northeastern is ready for us!

I can't believe they're actually letting me out of here.

I don't get it.

Mrs. Perry tries to keep students in step but it isn't easy.

It's my turn next.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September 1988, the Class of 1992 stepped off those ugly yellow buses and entered Westwood High for the first time as freshmen. Some students were fearful of what might lay ahead for them in the next four years and others were uncertain if they would survive until graduation.

Well, we obviously did but not without many trials and tribulations: getting lost or being sent in the wrong direction, loads of homework, "forbidden" freshman initiations and study halls. While we were trying to cope with our courses and poor freshman status, the Class of 1992 became very involved in athletics. Even with grueling double sessions, we were not all fully prepared for the commitment required to sports. Though a few students had the talent to make the varsity teams, the majority of students participated on the junior varsity level. Throughout the year, the athletic teams maintained winning seasons. In the fall, the football team travelled to Boston University, where they won the Superbowl. In the winter, the Girls' Basketball Team captured the Tri-Valley League title once again. In the spring, the Girls' Tennis Team were Tri-Valley League champions, continuing the success of Westwood teams.

In clubs and activities, the Class of 1992 was well represented. Student Council continued its service to the school, while Key Club served the community. The Marching Band was great this year, finishing third in NESBA finals. Even a few members of the Class of 1992 made their acting debut in the drama performance of "The Boyfriend."

As the year began to come to an end, the freshman class was confronted with final exams and achievement tests. The Class of 1992 endured these tests realizing summer vacation would soon be here.

All in all, freshman year was a decent year. We survived one year of high school and, most importantly, we were finally sophomores.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

In September of 1989, the Class of 1992 returned to Westwood High with a positive attitude. Though we were still underclassmen, we were no longer freshmen. We were finally sophomores!

Academically, the Class of 1992 continued to excel. In all subjects, students worked hard to grasp a greater span of knowledge. A few students were even challenged by their first AP course, European History taught by Mr. Brown.

In athletics, the Class of 1992 contributed much talent to the varsity teams. The football team continued their tradition with another winning season. The soccer teams and field hockey team also fared well. Once again, the Girls' Basketball Team captured the Tri-Valley League title. In the spring, the baseball and tennis teams ended the athletic year on a winning note. But let us not forget the incredible success of the Boys' Basketball Team.

While certain students participated in athletics, other students made their contribution in clubs and activities. The Student Council initiated numerous programs this year. The Homeless Program sought to teach students of the problems around them. In the spring, Student Council ran a week during which students competed on different color teams. Teams earned points when students attended the different events: volleyball, a dance and the faculty-student basketball game. While the Student Council and other groups, such as SADD and Safe Rides worked hard inside the school, the Key Club continued its service to the community.

This year, the Music Department and Drama Club were very successful. Furthermore, the Marching Band placed fourth in NESBA finals. In the spring, the Drama Club held a variety show that was enjoyed by all who attended.

In May and June, as the academic year came to an end, the Class of 1992 endured finals, achievement tests and our first AP exams. Finally, summer vacation had arrived.

However, before we departed, we had to bid farewell to two great years. This year, Miss Priscilla Congdon, after numerous years in the history department retired - We have missed her. We also had to say goodbye to Miss Judith Bolles, who passed away during the year. She was a great teacher and is missed by all who knew her.

With the arrival of summer, the Class of 1992 rejoiced. We were finally upperclassmen!

JUNIOR YEAR

This was to be our most important year, or so the teachers told us. We began our junior year with new upperclassman attitudes and the realization that this year would not be easy. Our ever faithful president Chris Blomquist, hard working vice-president Alysia Ordway, trusty treasurer Mike Cafarella, and dedicated secretary Sue Hart led the way as the Class of '92 began another year at Westwood High School.

From day one we were told about the SAT's, grades, the college search, and the importance of hard work. With this in mind, we began our preparation for the "real world."

Despite initial setbacks such as flooded hallways, the Class of '92, of course, came out on top. Academically, we had dozens of students enrolled in A.P. U.S. History with the memorable Mr. Wright. The National Honor Society inducted some of the best and brightest, and our class continued to be one of the most highly thought of classes ever to pass through Westwood High School.

It was also a year of extra-curricular prosperity as various clubs and athletic teams thrived on excellence. The football team, girls' basketball team, and the golf team were each named Tri-Valley League Champions. And, of course, how could we ever forget Westwood High School's 1991 Division III State Champion Hockey team.

"Legacy" was formed and in its first year captured a first place New England title. In the music and art world, the second annual Arts Festival and Amnesty International's "Battle of the Bands" were both quite successful in exhibiting Westwood High's creativity and diversity.

We were faced with some small mishaps: revised short Wednesdays, course selection, SAT's, A.P. exams, achievement tests, term papers, and a loss to Holliston at the Thanksgiving Day game. But we got through it all. We even made it through Oral English. Junior year wasn't all that bad.

As the busy year drew to a close, we realized school could only get better. After all, senior year was guaranteed to be an improvement. We left relieved that the constant pressure and work were temporarily over and knowing we made it through our junior year with a lot to be proud of. It all seems so long ago.

SENIOR YEAR

So this was it. This was to be our last year of public education in the Westwood school system. We went in with a positive attitude, knowing this year would be our best yet thanks to the able leadership of President Chris Bloomquist, Vice President Alysia Ordway, Treasurer Mike Cafarella, and Secretary Sue Hart. There is much to be remembered.

Academically, the Class of 1992 continued to excel. Immediately, we had to cope with the college process: college junk mail, guidance appointments, interviews, tours, stamps, deadlines, recommendations, army recruiters, and so much more. With all these pressures still lingering overhead, we managed to maintain high aca-demical standards. However, teachers and students could smell a hint of senioritis in the air.

Despite a few heartbreaking defeats, the Westwood athletes still came out on top. The football team had a great season with a record of 9-1 while the Girls' Swim Team won the South Sectionals. The Girls' Basketball team maintained a high tradition of excellence traveling all the way to the Boston Garden. The baseball team won the Tri-Valley League and continued their play in the post season. But let us not forget the Boys' Hockey Team which was Division 3 State champions for the second year in a row.

While some students excelled outside in athletics, other students in the school continued to make their mark on the community through various clubs and activities. This year, the Human Rights Squad was created to help ease any racial tensions. Ecolibrium, also formed this year, sought to make students aware of the growing environmental problems. Governance worked hard all year to develop a new constitution that was passed in the spring. The Music Department had another successful year ending with a trip to New York City. In its second year, Legacy captured second place at the New England finals. With all the activities going on, senioritis quietly crept into the school.

Throughout all our varied activities, we managed to have a few memorable senior events. Early in the fall when the leaves fell, so did the boys. The girls were victorious in the Powder Puff game that followed the senior barbeque. Class spirit was high during the Green Pride and Spring Fling weeks. The Junior-Senior Prom was one of the best in years, creating new memories for all who attended. Keeping with the fun, the Senior Banquet was anything but typical. We acknowledged the retirement of three dedicated teachers: Miss Fancesca Trisorio, Mr. David Walsh, and Mr. Russell Downes. We listened attentively as the infamous senior superlatives were awarded, laughed while playing novel quest, and smiled as we reflected on the past through the baby picture slide show. The beach trip was well attended and enjoyed by all. At this time, senioritis was in full swing.

As we, the Class of 1992, end one phase of our life and begin another, the memories and friendships created here will never leave our hearts. We would like to thank all of you who have made these past four years so special.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1992

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1992

We, the members of the Class of 1992 of Westwood High School, Westwood, Massachusetts, county of Norfolk, make this will and revoke all previous wills and codicils.

FIRST

We leave to the Class of 1993 all those college applications and interviews and a year of "sanity" and "reckless living."

I, Kurt Schliemann, leave to Kurt Tondorf my fall-away jumper and Hoosier Pride.

I, Laurie Schreiber, leave to Diane Costello and Alysia Ordway one more red-headed infatuation in college to meet your best friends.

I, Erin Sheehan, leave to Asad & Mr. X a warm jacket for the next Bosstones show and copy of C & C's Pride in the Name of Love.

I, Kristine Sivacek, leave to Sandra & Tony a booth at Friendly's w/our "usuals" and to the Geek, my hair styling tips.

I, John Smith, leave to Rich Siggins a steamy five-bush.

I, Melanie Stroh, leave to Mr. Hargreaves a paper punch; to Tony Mallios and Amy Mazzola, Ms. Conley.

I, Sully, leave to Duff the exclusive right to use my name for any future "good dogs" he may own.

I, Mark R. Sullivan, leave to Carrie Beaumont all the driving skills available. You'll need them.

I, Christine Swanson, leave to Karin Croke and Denis Desmond a bottle of water and two Guns N' Roses tickets so they can actually SEE the show.

I, John Tretter, leave to Rolly everything he lost, to King more patience and to Retardy brain cells!

I, Carey Vose, leave to the chic click a whole Parish Hall of deep and spiritual guys for next year—Good luck, chics!

I, Brad Weiner, leave to the boys' tennis team a lot of luck for the upcoming seasons.
